Searchers For Plane Buck 16-Ft. Snowdrifts

Sees Arena Open By Summer's End As Tenders In

Indication was given today that the Memorial Arena can be opened before the end of the summer as the City Council prepared to open three tenders, and possibly a fourth, from Victoria and Vancouver contractors anxious to take over the job.

Tenders had not been opened at press time, so confirmation of the number received could not be given.

It was known definitely that the local firm of Luney Brothers and Hamilton Ltd. had tendered on the job. And it was learned reliably that two large construction companies of Vancouver had submitted bids. The possible fourth tender was to have come from a mainland company also.

W. Hamilton, partner in the Victoria contracting company tendering on finishing the rink, was optimistic that the City Council would turn over the job to a private contracting company, rather than have the city continue the work.

There are members of the council, though, who fear the city will lose face by not finishing the arena on its own.

SILENCE BROKEN

Up to now no indication has been given as to when the arena could be completed. Contractors, as well as civic officials, have steered clear of expressing an opinion on the question.

But Mr. Hamilton said the arena could be finished "in about four or five months—by the end of the summer anyway" provided there are no delays when refrigeration equipment is to be installed.

He explained that refrigeration pipes must be laid in the concrete floor of the rink, and the equipment would have to be available if a concrete pouring schedule was to be maintained.

Mr. Hamilton estimated that the finishing—grinding and polishing — of the cement floor under the ice surface, would take from three to four weeks to complete.

The refrigeration pipes will be about an inch under the surface of the polished floor which must be even and flat.

There is considerable work left on walls and seats in the arena also, as well as on offices and quarters for athletic organizations using the building.

First Of 13 Diesel-Electric Engines For Island

By the end of February, 13 of these 115-ton engines will be in use on the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway. Some of the line's engineers and other officials were on hand Sunday to look over the engine when it arrived. Standing, left to right, are: E. O. Sommerville, O. J. Droob, E. R. Willey, R. Lambeth, H. J. Brown and G. H. Crocker, all locomotive engineers; A. H. Cuthbert, divisional master mechanic; C. C. Chapman, locomotive foreman, Victoria; W. C. Vanbebber, field engineer for Baldwin Locomotive Works, manufacturers of the diesels; J. A. Colebrook, diesel maintenance man, Victoria, and E. A. Brown, C.P.R. Pacific region diesel superintendent. On the running board are, left to right, J. Loudon, locomotive fireman; T. H. Grey, locomotive engineer, and W. McCarrison, locomotive fireman. (See "Young Engineer," page 17.)

Three Ground Parties Comb Mountain Areas North Of Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Three ground search parties today bucked 16-foot snowdrifts in North Vancouver's rugged Capilano district in a search for a crashed Vampire jet plane and its pilot.

Missing since Sunday in the first jet accident in western Canada is FO. John Allen Borrie, 25, of Vancouver.

Two R.C.A.F. aircraft took up the search at dawn. Weather conditions over the rugged mountain terrain had rendered aerial search useless on Sunday. Ground parties combed the area, 15 miles north of here, until dark.

Although only about three miles as the crow flies, the distance covers some of the most treacherous mountain territory in southern B.C.

The men of the ground parties are equipped with walkie-talkies and able to communicate with searching aircraft. British Columbia Police also are assisting in the ground search. Various reports of a plane in distress had been received by the R.C.A.F.

The 442 jet was a Vancouver City Auxiliary Squadron aircraft.

The wife of Pilot Borrie was visiting her mother in Spokane.

Judge Refuses To Bar Guards At U.S. Red Trial

NEW YORK (AP)—Trial of a dozen high Communist leaders opened today amid defence counsel charges that a large police detail assigned to the trial was "a deliberate, purposeful effort to poison the minds of the prospective jurors."

The accusation came after one of the largest court guards in New York police history had been stationed in and about the federal court room to maintain order.

The Communist defendants are charged with working for the forcible overthrow of the United States government.

At the outset, Federal Judge Harold R. Medina overruled a defence motion that city police be removed from the courthouse and its vicinity.

Only 11 of the 12 defendants were present as the oft-delayed trial started.

FOSTER IS SICK

Absent was William Z. Foster, national chairman of the Communist Party, whose lawyers previously had indicated he would not be present because of illness.

Judge Medina also denied a motion seeking another 90-day postponement.

After a roll call of the defendants, U.S. attorney John F. X. McGohey moved to proceed with the conspiracy indictment against the 11 defendants present.

Judge Medina did not rule immediately on McGohey's motion to proceed.

Former U.S. Airman Gets 25 Years On Treason Charge

NEW YORK (AP) — Martin Monti, a 27-year-old former United States Air Force Lieutenant, today pleaded guilty to treason charges and was sentenced to 25 years' imprisonment.

Monti also was fined $10,000. He could have been sentenced to death on the charges.

The Florissant, Mo., resident was indicted last Oct. 14 on charges he gave himself and his plane up to the Germans in Italy between Oct. 13, 1944, and May 8, 1946, after going A.W.L. in Karachi, India.

The indictment alleged Monti volunteered his services to the Germans, was released as a prisoner of war and broadcast for the Nazis from Berlin as Martin Welthaupt. Subsequently, the indictment charged, Monti became an officer of the S.S. (Elite Guard).

After the Nazi capitulation, it was charged, Monti made his way to Italy and joined the U.S. 5th Army.

Extradition Of Farm Worker In Ontario Sought By Belgium

TORONTO (CP) — The Evening Telegram reported today in a copyright story that the Belgian government is seeking the extradition of a tobacco farm worker from Stafford ville, Ont., 25 miles east of St. Thomas, to face a charge of murder.

The paper said a secret hearing in the case was held in Toronto last Thursday and proceedings were adjourned to Jan. 20.

The accused is Arthur Matthys, 28, said to have been arrested on orders from authorities at Ottawa. He is held in jail pending his hearing. He is wanted in Belgium to stand trial on a charge of murder in the slaying of Armand Devos in September, 1944.

The Telegram said Belgian authorities charge Matthys was a member of a group who killed Devos in the town of Halltert, near Brussels. It said Matthys maintains his innocence and says he never met Devos, who he claims to have been a German spy.

V. H. Tillson, Matthys' counsel, is opposing the deportation order on the grounds that the case is of a political nature and that a person cannot be extradited for a political offence.

Sporadic Shooting As Natal Feud Controlled

DURBAN, South Africa (AP) —South Africa's bloody racial warfare today showed signs of spreading even as government leaders set up machinery to control the wild Zulu-Indian rioting.

The air still rang with shots in Durban, where police fired on native looters Sunday night, but police said later the murderous feud was under control here.

DEATHS MORE THAN 100

More than 100 persons were reported killed here in the street fighting that began last Thursday.

The ugly warfare has spread to other towns and rural areas, however, and 25,000 Indians have fled from their homes.

The latest flare-up was reported in Johannesburg, largest city in South Africa, 310 miles northwest of Durban.

Troops and police stood by to quell any violence after a bomb was hurled from a passing car at an Indian shop. Windows were smashed, but no one was hurt.

An emergency meeting of high officials took place in Durban. It was attended by Mayor L. L. Boyd, Justice Minister C. R. Swart and Defence Minister F. C. Erasmus.

Boyd assured citizens after the meeting that reinforcements of 2,000 troops would remain as long as necessary to restore order. They have been given wide powers.

Stories of the rape and mutilation of Indian women by frenzied mobs chanting ancient Zulu battle cries have spread widely.

Economic dissatisfaction has been blamed for the native unrest. The main foodstuffs of the natives have been in short supply and they have claimed Indian merchants were gouging and forcing tie-in deals on them.

The natives say they are forced to buy goods they don't want at triple prices in order to get necessities.

There are few native traders and many rich Indian wholesalers, storekeepers and landowners.

Power Shortage In Northwest Critical

PORTLAND (AP)—Pacific northwest electric power facilities faced another 24-hour critical operation period.

A winter-long voluntary dim-out appeal, until now on a late afternoon peak load time basis, has been shifted to a full 24-hour program.

Housewives were asked to postpone usual Monday washing chores until later in the week.

Bonneville Power Administration officials report that continued cold weather, which has reduced stream flow in the Columbia, is daily shaving more kilowattage from the production.

Security Police Created To Keep Germany Disarmed

BERLIN (AP)—Creation of a permanent security police force to see that Germany remains disarmed, was announced today by Great Britain, the United States and France.

The tri-power force, called a military security board, is designed to take over the demilitarization functions of the inoperative Allied Control Council, which the Russians wrecked by withdrawal.

It comprises inspectors and enforcement boards which will see to it that Germany does not rearm in the military, industrial or scientific fields.

The board's creation was ordered by the six-country London conference and its details worked out by the three military governors. The six countries are: Britain, the United States, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

An official summary of the directive creating the board and defining its duties said in part: "In the field of personnel it will prevent the resurgence of military organizations and the militaristic spirit; in the field of scientific research it will make sure that no activity is directed towards war objectives."

Montreal Teachers On Strike; Students Fight

MONTREAL (CP) — Disturbances among students broke out at half a dozen strike-bound Roman Catholic schools today as teachers embarked on their first strike in the city's history.

As the 1,700-odd teachers attended a strike meeting instead of turning up for classes, police were called to one school where a group of students fought with others who tried to prevent them from entering.

Meanwhile, at a meeting in Public Assistance Hall, spokesmen for the French-Speaking Alliance des Professors Catholic and the English-Speaking Federation of Catholic Teachers, claimed the strike was 90 per cent effective.

AFFECTS 70,000

More than 70,000 pupils were affected by the strike, which teachers called to enforce demands for salary increases. With basic pay for women at $1,000, they are seeking minimums of $1,300 for women and $1,700 for men.

It was estimated that 25 Roman Catholic schools were closed tight, while all others were affected. Principals were not affected by the strike. Neither were 50,000 pupils under members of religious orders.

Even in the religious schools attendance was down.

Police were called first to Breboeuf school at Rosemount in the northeast section of the city, where students parading with banners pledging support for the teachers got out of hand.

Calls were received from half a dozen other schools in rapid succession.

Probably the biggest demonstration occurred in front of the Montreal Catholic School Commission offices, where high school students paraded with placards. Eugene Simard, commission chairman, locked the doors, but no attempt was made to enter the building and the students dispersed.

DIFFER ABOUT PICKETS

There were conflicting reports about pickets. Alliance president Leo Guindon said none were posted—"it is not necessary." Mr. Simard, however, claimed there was picketing and declared it was "seditious and illegal."

The commission chairman warned demonstrating high school students to return to their class rooms wherever teachers were on duty or he would close the high schools.

LAW MUST BE UPHELD—In Quebec today Premier Duplessis said teachers' strikes in that province are prohibited by law and his Government will not fail to "assure respect of law and authority."

Jap Cars To Russia

TOKYO (AP) — Japan soon will ship the first batch of 30 railroad freight cars to Russia from Osaka. Japan is building freight cars and locomotives for export.

2 Treasury Men Get Terms For Forgery

EDMONTON (CP) — Two former treasury branch officials, charged with irregularities involving thousands of dollars, pleaded guilty before District Court Judge J. P. McIsaac today and received penitentiary terms.

Helmut A. Koch, former manager at Wainwright, Alta., was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary after pleading guilty to two of 13 charges involving approximately $14,000 in which he was in default in various amounts from December, 1946, to April, 1948.

Charles S. Thurber, former accountant at Coronation, Alta., was convicted on 22 counts on charges involving about $12,000 from February, 1947, to November, 1948. He was sentenced to two years on each count, the sentences to run concurrently. The court was told the men had committed crimes of false pretences and had uttered forged documents in order to obtain money to speculate in stocks.

Year In Jail For Theft Of A Taxi

Lawrence W. Green, naval rating, was sentenced to one year at hard labor in Oakalla Prison Farm today in city police court by Magistrate H. C. Hall when he pleaded guilty to theft of a taxi, the property of the Quarter Cab Ltd., Saturday night.

Constable Bud Godfrey of the B.C. Provincial Police told the court he received a radio message from the city police to be on the lookout for this stolen car. The officer said he stopped the vehicle at Langford, that accused, who was intoxicated, was behind the wheel and the only occupant of the car.

Magistrate Hall suggested the accused ask for time in order to talk the matter over with his superior officer and secure counsel if necessary, "because I think it is only fair to tell you now that I have no option but to give you one year in jail for a conviction on an offence of this nature."

Green, however, merely said "I'm guilty."

The defendant said that he was drunk and that everything was hazy in his mind. "I don't know where I found it or anything else," he said.

To Be Released

TEL AVIV (Reuter) — Israeli authorities today informed the British Consul-General at Haifa that they have decided to release two R.A.F. pilots shot down over the Palestine-Egyptian border.

The pilots, FO. Timothy McElhaw and PO. Frank Close, were flying R.A.F. Spitfires on a reconnaissance mission over the frontier area when they were shot down Jan. 7. Israeli authorities claimed they had crossed over Israeli territory.

Balmy Breezes In Eastern Canada, Snow In California

By CANADIAN PRESS

A widespread storm stranded hundreds of persons in southern California's Rocky Mountains Sunday while in eastern Canada balmy breezes brought out week-end pleasure drivers.

Manitoba today was digging out after its third big blizzard of the year while ice was breaking up in the St. Lawrence River near Brockville, Ont.

In Ontario dew worms in January are as unusual as a blizzard in July, but they were out in hundreds on the lawn of Lionel Monk in Peterborough Sunday night. Monk's lawn is bare of snow. The temperature on Sunday there was 46.

In southern California the mercury dipped into the third week of freezing temperature. Snowfalls closed highways in Arizona with up to 19 inches reported at Morenci, Ariz. A special train was sent out of Lordsburg, N.M., to rescue stranded motorists.

Temperatures in eastern Canada were expected to drop today, with Toronto due for 20 degrees above. Snowflurries are predicted for Quebec.

Today's freezing temperatures in southern California followed a damaging gale—with winds up to 80 miles an hour—in the area Saturday. Snowdrifts up to 12 feet deep stranded hundreds of motorists. An estimated 300 cars were stalled near Lordsburg and many private families were taking in some of the 500 extra families that jammed the town's six hotels.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Chinese Communist radio today reported Red capture of Tangku, ocean port of Tientsin.

Tack Causes Death

SEATTLE (AP) — Six-month-old Stephen Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray D. Brown of Montesano, died here today after swallowing a small tack. The child was rushed here Sunday night by a relay of four state patrol cars after an X-ray had disclosed the tack lodged in his throat. An emergency operation followed.

Manhunt In Alberta For Engraver Kidnap Suspect

CALGARY (CP)—An intensive manhunt is under way in southern Alberta today for a suspect in the Vancouver kidnapping of a 66-year-old engraver.

Police disclosed today that the suspect was sighted in Cranbrook, B.C., Sunday and he was believed headed for Alberta via the Crow's Nest Pass. A road block was established at Lundbreck, Alta., about 60 airline miles southwest of Lethbridge, Alta., but the search has not been successful so far.

The suspect, reported to be traveling under the name of MacMillan, is wanted in connection with the kidnapping of Ernest Conduit in Vancouver last week. The elderly engraver was found chained in the basement of a Vancouver district home by police last week. He had been kept prisoner by a group of men who allegedly were trying to make him use his engraving skill to produce counterfeit $20 bills.

The wanted man, possibly traveling with a woman companion, is described as 21 or 22 years of age, six feet tall, weighing 150 pounds and sandy haired. He is reported wearing a light colored topcoat and posing as a former army officer. He is believed driving a 1938 or 1939 model car bearing B.C. license plates.

$100,000 For Truman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress today voted a raise in pay to President Truman.

Only Truman's signature is necessary to boost his salary from $75,000 to $100,000 a year and raise his tax-free annual expense allowance from $40,000 to $90,000.

The measure also raises the pay of the Vice-President and the Speaker of the House from $20,000 to $30,000 a year and gives each of them $10,000 tax-free expense allowances annually.

Israel, Egypt Agree On Major Armistice Issues

RHODES (AP) — A United Nations spokesman indicated today Israel and Egypt have reached agreement on the most important issues which blocked an armistice.

The spokesman for the mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, announced a full meeting of the delegations was being held tonight. The same spokesman had announced Sunday that a full meeting of both delegations would not be called until agreement was reached on the outstanding points at issue.

Bunche, meanwhile was reported launching a peace offensive in all the Arab states at war with Israel.

The spokesman said, however, that other Arab states will not be invited to take part in talks now progressing here between Israelis and Egyptians.

Dr. Walter Eytan, head of the Israeli delegation, said in an interview today that Israel wants an armistice throughout the Middle East, but does not want any other Arab states to join in the Rhodes talks.

(A reliable source in Tel Aviv said Israel, which has been discussing armistice talks with Lebanon, as well as Egypt, now has begun similar talks with Trans-Jordan.)

One Woman's Day

By NANCY HODGES

WEAKENING WEEKS

WELL, WHATEVER the present year has in store for us we shan't be lost for occasions to celebrate and observe, take it from me!

That profound prognostication comes not from looking into a crystal ball, twiddling tea leaves, feeling bumps, or even taking a poll of people. I made it on the strength of a peep into a calendar.

As it happens to be a calendar issued by the U.S. Department of Commerce and records not a mere 52 weeks but 106 of them, I found it particularly intriguing, especially as it has quite an influence in Canada, too.

DOUBLING UP

ON THE FACE OF IT, that calendar suggests that we shall be borrowing time in 1949. But, in reality, it deals only with those "weeks" devoted to specific causes or commercialisms—which explains the multiplication.

One of the first weeks we face is National Heart Week, starting Feb. 14. As it coincides with Valentine's Day, I assumed it had to do with the emotional state of the heart. But seemingly it is more concerned with the physical rather than the love-sick flutterings of that organ.

February also has a couple of days worth observing. One is National Hygiene Day which, for some unexplained reason, has horned in on Ground Hog Day, Feb. 2. Being a suspicious soul, I am wondering if there is an obscure inference here of some relationship between personal hygiene and 5 o'clock shadow?

TEA AND TIFFIN

TEA INTERESTS also move into the spotlight next month, for starting with the 11th, Americans will be exhorted during National Hot Tea Week to partake more freely of the cup that cheers but doesn't inebriate.

Followers of the British idea of afternoon tea may think that title a bit redundant. But for those Americans who don't think tea so hot, the same company will cater with National Iced Tea Week in July, when parched tongues are less likely to resist the lure of a glass that tinkles even if it doesn't intoxicate.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

TALKING OF TEA reminds me that there is food, at least for thought, in a number of other tummy-tickling weeks coming up before long. For instance, the bees will be working overtime getting ready for Honey-for-Breakfast Week which starts April 17.

And I don't know whether the pharmacists are equally busy making an extra lot of dyspepsia tablets to combat the "dunkers," but National Pharmacy Week and National Doughnut Week curiously conflict on April 25.

Just to top off that particular week, somebody—I don't know whether it's the U.S. mint, the owners of juke-boxes, or the group which is trying to get 2½ and 7½ cent pieces into American coinage—has also dedicated it to National Coin Week.

RAISINS AND REASONS

IT'S ODD, TOO, that National Raisin Week and National Hearing Week fall together on May 8, but what the raisin is I haven't discovered, any more than I know why National Dog Week should be in September and National Cat Week in November.

The humorists must have got together to dedicate the week of May 1 to its dual purpose—National Noise Abatement Week and National Baby Week. Or is this a hint to warn parents of the approach of a grim season of infant sacrifice on the altar of peace?

And I confess that I chortled long and loud when I noted that National Leave Us Alone Week—which was started as a psychological wailing-wall by U.S. merchants who are fed to the teeth with "weeks"—and National Laugh Week fall together on April 1.

If cranberry stains soil your table linen, immediately after the meal hold the stained parts under boiling hot water. Let the water run over the stains until all the color is gone.

The Autobiography of CHAIM WEIZMANN

President Provisional Government of Israel

As a distinguished scientist as well as Zionist leader, Chaim Wiezmann saw early that it would be science—new products, new uses, new technologies—which would make a large-scale settlement possible in Palestine. It is this phase of his work for the Jewish National Home—and the final decision to establish it—that he discusses today:

By CHAIM WEIZMANN

The reader has been aware in what an organic fashion my Zionist and scientific interests have been interwoven from my earliest years. The question of oil, for instance, which hovers over the Zionist problem, as it does, indeed, over the entire world problem, is a scientific one. It is part of the general question of raw materials, which has been a preoccupation with me for decades, both as a scientist and a Zionist.

It had always been my view that Palestine could be made a centre of the new scientific development which would get the world past the conflict arising from the monopolistic position of oil. The program is still in its initial stages, but enough has been done in Philadelphia, London and Rehovoth to indicate the lines of research on which we should move at present.

Another piece of work which has been occupying our attention leads to the production of cheap but digestible and valuable foodstuffs. It may be briefly described as the attemut to upgrade materials which are used as cattle food.

The materials are peanuts, soya beans and similar substances. This product has been tested in many hospitals as nutrition for patients, and for people with ulcerated stomachs, and it has proved very beneficial. It is, moreover, cheaply produced, and is within reach of the poorest populations, such as the coolies of India or China. It is entirely of a vegetable nature, is highly nutritive, and without containing a particle of meat has a meaty taste. It should be of a particular benefit to those Eastern countries in which meat is either too expensive or is prohibited for religious reasons.

Touluene Essential

A third branch of research which has occupied our attention is a process for converting the crude residues obtained after the distillation of oil into aromatic substances like benzine, toluene, xylene, napthalene and certain gaseous substances like butylene, isobutlyene, and so on. Our purpose was to create reserves of toluene, for we remembered our sad experiences in the last war, when we ran out of toluene, the basis of TNT.

The building and organization of the Sieff Institute was, even for Palestine, a unique case of pioneering. When, during the war, we undertook to manufacture certain drugs which till then had been a monopoly of the Germans, we lacked both apparatus and raw material. The former we had to improvise, the latter to manufacture for ourselves.

There were problems of another kind. When the institute was built, on the premises of the experimental station, it looked at first as if we were going to sink in a sea of sand. There was not a tree or a blade of grass to adorn the vast courtyard. I therefore set out to plant trees and lay out lawns. Colors, flowers and creepers began to appear very soon, for we have plenty of water and the soil is light and responds to good treatment. After two or three years of care, the whole was transformed into a garden which delights the eye. Every visitor and worker feels the effect.

Does Practical Work

The Sieff Institute has gradually won a good name for itself, both in the scientific and the Jewish world during the 13 years of its existence. I believe we have done good practical work. The name of Rehovoth is familiar to every research chemist in England and the United States, and we receive quite a few applications from scientists who wish to come and work with us.

The Institute proved to be only the beginning. On the occasion of my seventieth birthday a group of my American friends conceived a more ambitious project, a scientific centre which would embrace not only organic chemistry and other branches on a larger and more important scale.

It will be the business of those charged with the guidance of the Weizmann Institute not merely to imitate work which is going on in other places, but to concentrate on problems which are peculiarly Middle Eastern or Palestinian, like the introduction of new varieties of plants and the exploitation of resources in the country.

It is a fascinating problem to the tackling of which I look forward with great eagerness, even though personally, I can only listen and chime in occasionally. Owing both to my age and eyesight disability, I cannot take part in the actual performance.

U.N. Jewish State

The final phase in the struggle for the establishment of the Jewish state may be said to have begun with Britain's decision in 1947 to refer the whole problem of Palestine to the United Nations. By that time the Anglo-American Commission and the London Conference on Palestine of January, 1947, had been revealed as time-saving devices. The same spirit motivated, I believe, the resort to the U.N: expressed itself in favor of the creation of a Jewish state, Nov. 29, 1947.

There were many tense moments preceding the final decision. There was, for instance, the actual territorial division. When this was discussed some of the American delegates felt that the Jews were getting too large a slice of Palestine, and that the Arabs might legitimately raise objections.

It was proposed to cut out from the proposed Jewist State a considerable portion of the Negeb, taking the port of Akaba away from us. Ever since the time of the Balfour Declaration I had attached great value to Akaba and the region about it. At present it looks like a forbidding desert, but with a little imagination it becomes quite clear that Akaba is the gate to the Indian Ocean and constitutes a much shorter route from Palestine to the Far East than via Port Said and the Suez Canal. After consultation with friends I decided to go to Washington to see Presidet Truman and put the whole case before him.

On the morning of Wednesday, Nov. 19, I was received by the President. I spoke first of the Negeb as a whole, which I believe is destined to become an important part of the Jewish State. The northern part, running from Gaza to Asluj or Beersheba, is beautiful country.

It needs water, of course, which can either be brought from the north, as projected in the Lowdermilk scheme, or provided locally by desalting the brackish water which is found in abundance in these parts. We are, in fact, engaged in our Rehovoth Institute in experiments on the second alternative, and have succeeded in producing drinking water at an economic price; the question of larger quantities for irrigation still needs study. The settlements which are already receiving water from a pipeline are showing remarkable results.

Keep Sea Route Open

I then spoke of Akaba. Akaba is at present a useless bay. It needs to be dredged, deepened and made into a waterway capable of accommodating ships of sizable dimensions. I pleaded further with the President that if the Egyptions choose to be hostile to the Jewish State, they can close navigation to us through the Suez Canal when this becomes their property, as it will in a few years.

The Iraquis, too, can make it difficult for us to pass through the Persian Gulf. Thus we might be cut off entirely from the Orient. We could meet such an eventuality by building our own canal from Haifa to Tel Aviv to Akaba. The project has a great many attractive possibilities, and the mere fact that such a thing could be done would probably serve as a deterrent against closing the road to India for the Jews.

I was extremely happy to find that the President read the map very quickly and very clearly. He promised me that he would communicate at once with the American delegation at Lake Success.

President's Orders

At New York, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, Ambassador Herschel Johnson, head of the American delegation, called in Moshe Shertok of the Jewish Agency in order to advise him of the decision to exclude Akaba from the Jewish State. Shortly after Mr. Shertok entered but before the subject was broached, the American delegate was called to the telephone. At the other end of the wire was the President of the United States, telling him that he considered the proposal to keep Akaba within the Jewish State a reasonable one. Obviously the President had been as good as his word and in a few short hours had given the necessary instructions to the American delegation.

The decision opened the way to the vote of the General Assembly on Nov. 29, when by a majority of 33 to 13, the United Nations declared: "The Mandate for Palestine shall terminate as soon as possible, but in any case not later than Aug. 1, 1948. . . . Independent Arab and Jewish states, and the specific international regime for the City of Jerusalem . . . shall come into existence in Palestine two months after the evacuation of the armed forces of the Mandatory Power has been completed, but in any case no later than Oct. 1, 1948."

Tomorrow, Chaim Weizman discusses the challenge to the new nation.

This is a serialization of parts of "Trial and Error," by Chaim Weizmann, which will be published in book form by Harper & Brothers Jan. 19, 1948. Copyright, 1949, by the Weizmann Foundation.

Clark Gable Plans To Tour Europe Between Pictures

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — No sooner does Clark Gable get back to work than he starts thinking about a vacation again.

"I work to make a living," he admitted as he started work on "Any Number Can Play." "I hate to get up in the morning and hate to go to bed at night." Clark always has four months off between pictures and he said he'd like to spend his next vacation in Europe.

"I think I'll take my car over and stay four months. Pass up Deauville and just go through Paris and head south. Drive over the Pyrenees and then into Italy."

STARS AND THINGS

Joan Caulfield is hunting for a house out here. After a fling at the stage, she has decided to pursue her film career in earnest. She passed up two good roles to tour in "Voice of the Turtle," but now her film jobs come first.

Bing Crosby will be spending most of his time at his new Carmel home until "Broadway Bill" starts in March. A co-star hasn't been selected yet for him, but it's reported he has decided whom he wants. Bing always selects his own leading ladies. Donna Reed, maybe?

William Powell is sleuthing again in "Take One False Step" and that's good news. His last two pictures weren't so good for him. Bill has to do only three films before 1952—one for U.I. and two for M-G-M.

MORE THINGS

Anne Jeffreys is heading back to Hollywood after her stage triumphs. She'll again pursue her film career.

Producer Richard Maibaum is already plotting a "Dear Mom" to follow "Dear Wife" and "Dear Ruth." This could go on indefinitely.

Richard Widmark plays a fairly nice fellow in "Slatterly's Hurricane" for a change. He only runs off with his best friend's girl.

Greer Garson has a trophy she values almost as highly as her Oscar. It's a gold watch as a token of esteem from the acrobats she worked with in "Julia Misbehaves."

Veronica Lake says she has become "the grandma of the Paramount lot." She has been there longer than any other actress.

Labor Govt. Chiefs Differ On Nationalization Plans

LONDON (CP) — Members of Parliament are returning to Westminster this week after a month-long Christmas recess for a session at which the 1950 election campaigns of the rival parties should begin to emerge.

Exchanges between Labor and the Conservative opposition will intensify in bitterness from the start of the proceedings Tuesday. But the voting public will be looking for something more than the members' ability to demolish their opponents' arguments. They'll be looking for clues as to the respective party programs.

As far as Labor is concerned, the big question seems to be: Shall we put on the brakes or continue full-steam-ahead with policies of nationalization, social welfare and security?

High Labor officers are known to disagree on this point. Some are said to think the Government should call a temporary halt to nationalization of industry at least until the first half-dozen schemes are working more smoothly than at present.

They are also alarmed at the mounting expense of welfare schemes and the inflationary tendency of wage demands, continuing despite the government's appeals to unions to keep wage levels constant.

Others argue Labor is pledged to a program of "full" nationalization and that failure to fulfil it might antagonize rank-and-file followers.

Some observers think Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, will need all his skill and strength to keep the cabinet united behind his present wage policy, which he stated bluntly in an address last week:

"It is most unfair for those workers who think they can bring some particular pressure to bear upon society to demand increases which can only be at the cost of their fellow workers.

"Not only is it unfair, but if such demands were generally indulged in it would wreck all hope of our recovery . . . You must not ask for or expect any further advance in social standards or wage levels until we have been able to increase the productivity of our industries."

Magnuson Seeks Canadian-U.S. Pact On Alaska Railway

WASHINGTON (AP) — Plans to push efforts for Congressional approval of construction of a railroad from the Pacific northwest through British Columbia to Alaska were announced today by Senator Warren Magnuson (Dem., Wash.).

Magnuson said he and Senator Hugh Butler (Rep., Neb.) will reintroduce soon a bill directing the President to negotiate with Canada, through the state department, for an agreement for the joint construction of the railroad.

As soon as an agreement is reached with Canada, he said, he and Butler will introduce legislation to authorize construction of the line.

"Such a direct railroad connection with the territory is needed to meet demands of the fast-expanding area and from the standpoint of national defence," Magnuson told a reporter.

"I think we will find that Canada will be glad to cooperate with us in its construction," Magnuson said. "It will open up a new section of the Dominion as well as furnishing a connection between the United States and our last frontier."

The British Columbia Government and officials of the provincially-owned Pacific Great Eastern Railway have frequently been approached by U.S. interests seeking extension of that railway into Alaska. The road links Squamish, on the coast just north of Vancouver, and Quesnel, in the Cariboo country.

The B.C. officials, however, have always held that before considering such a plan, proper credentials would have to be produced by the U.S. officials. So far their plans have included some sort of financing by the U.S. government, but no proof that this would be forthcoming has been produced.

The Government, however, has indicated it would be willing to consider such a proposal after it had been approved by the U.S. and Canadian Governments.

Meeting for the formation of the Y.M.C.A. Teen Club will take place at the "Y" Tuesday night at 7.30.

Scrap Price Break Stirs Steel Market

CLEVELAND (AP)—A significant break in scrap prices has captured the attention of steel markets, the magazine Steel said at the week-end.

"The break, more than $2 a ton on steel mill dealer grades, and $5 to $7.50 on foundry grades, was the sharpest experienced in this market since the fall of 1947," Steel said.

"Before the war, scrap developments often foreshadowed impending changes in the steel market proper. Conditions are so different today it is questionable whether this still applies."

The current uneasiness in scrap seems unrelated to steel production, which promises to continue around capacity levels through the first half of 1949 at least, Steel said.

Steel output rose 1½ points last week to 99 per cent of capacity.

Court Hears Appeal Of Man Sentenced To Hang

A charge that the Crown unfairly carried out extended attacks on the character of Jacob E. Wied calculated to show that he was a type that would commit the crime of murder, was made by John Groves Gould in Appeal Court today.

Mr. Gould, acting as counsel on behalf of Wied appealing against a conviction of murder, said the prisoner's character was not an issue at the trial. Evidence of this nature was brought out by the Crown for no other purpose than to prejudice the jury, he added.

A packed courtroom listened to the counsel's appeal on behalf of the 39-year-old carpenter sentenced to hang for the knife slaying of his wife, Evelyn. Mrs. Wied died in Royal Jubilee Hospital as the result of a knife wound six hours after she was found unconscious in a Yates Street rooming-house on July 17.

Mr. Gould applied to the court for permission to amend the notice of appeal. The amendment read that the trial judge erred in ruling that Wied's statements made as the result of questions by police officers were admissible and legal.

The appellant's contentions are that constable Aldon Appelton's and Detective A. Briggs' cross-examination of Wied in his apartment was harsh and unfair and inadmissible at the trial.

OFFERS ALIBI

Wied's defense as a whole was on the alibi that he was in the bathroom when the incident which led to his wife's death occurred, Mr. Gould explained.

"The Crown's contention is that he could not have gone up to the bathroom without being seen by the Humble family who occupied a room adjoining that of Wied's" the counsel said.

With regard to the Crown's attacks on Wied's character, Mr. Gould said from the very onset of the trial the Crown questioned the accused as to his drinking habits and the "bickerings" he had with his wife.

Mr. Gould's also claimed that the rebuttal evidence led by the Crown at the conclusion of the defence case was inadmissible.

He said the rebuttal evidence could have no other effect than to hold the accused up to contempt in the eyes of the jury. It had nothing to do with the case, he added.

ALLEGES MISDIRECTION

Counsel is also appealing against the conviction on the grounds that Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane charged the jury to the effect that it was up to the accused to explain the death of his wife.

Mr. Gould also alleges that the trial judge misdirected the jury as to the distinction between direct and circumstantial evidence.

Wied was not present in the court to hear his appeal. W. H. M. Haldane, assisted by L. G. MacKenzie, represent the Crown.

Hotel, Church, Stores Destroyed In Quebec Fire

COATICOOK, Que. (CP) — Fire roared through the business section of this Eastern Township town Sunday, destroying eight buildings but taking no lives.

The conflagration destroyed five stores, a hotel, a Roman Catholic church and a private residence. Damage is estimated at from $750,000 to $1,000,000.

The fire began at 8 a.m., and still was burning in the ruins when night came, although it had been brought under control.

Firemen from Magog and Sherbrooke, 30 and 20 miles away respectively, helped local firemen fight the spectacular blaze.

Starting in the Hotel Child on Child Street, the fire spread to the Regent Variety Store on one side of the hotel and to two hardware stores, a pharmacy and restaurant on the other. There were tenements above all the stores.

Fanned by a stiff breeze, the flames swept through storage sheds behind these buildings and spread to the St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church on a hill behind the burning block. The church and a two-family house beside it, both on Court Street, which runs at right angles to Child Street, were burned out.

Eyes Turned Skyward As Plane Leaves Trail

Citizens looked skyward with interest shortly after 10 this morning as an aircraft passed over the city leaving a short vapor trail in its wake.

Some watchers thought the plane was a jet, but trained observers noted that it was too large and too slow. The aircraft, heading in a northerly direction, was likely an American DC-4 flying to Alaska.

The silver plane was visible against a clear blue sky at around 15,000 feet. The freezing air at that altitude would cause a vapor trail to form from the exhaust of the engines.

November Gas Sales Show Boost In 1948

Gasoline sales in British Columbia during November totaled 10,974,915 gallons, an increase of 13 per cent over the previous November and a normal seasonal decrease of 7 per cent from the previous month, the Coal and Petroleum Board reported today.

Retail sales, however, were less than 1 per cent below the previous month, while commercial sales were down 10 per cent from October, 1948.

In Victoria retail sales gained by 10.90 per cent to 705,481 gallons over the November, 1947, total. In Vancouver the increase was 5.90 per cent while the increase for the remainder of the province was 21.75 per cent. Retail sales comprised 7,522,718 gallons of the 10,974,915 gallon total for the month.

Commercial sales for the whole province showed a 12 per cent increase over November, 1947, while marine sales were up by 11 per cent and aviation sales by 35 per cent.

Argentine Residents Inquire About B.C.

Several English-speaking residents of the Argentine, apparently concerned over the way Peron is running the country, are looking to British Columbia as their possible new homeland.

According to officials of the B.C. Government Travel Bureau there have been half a dozen inquiries from Argentine to their office during the past couple of weeks. All were from prospective immigrants.

The bureau has sent several booklets to each inquirer, giving details of possible sources of livelihood in British Columbia and suggesting what sections of the province might be the most satisfactory places for them to settle.

Travel bureau officials feel that there may be a considerable number of Argentine residents coming to this province during the next few years.

Girl's Body Found In Park Near Tacoma

TACOMA (AP)—A girl's nude frozen body found in a shallow grave in an outlying park was identified Sunday night as that of a 17-year-old beauty school student who has been missing for two months.

The young student, Noreen McNicholas, disappeared after leaving home Nov. 5 to attend beauty school classes. She never arrived.

The body was covered with moss and earth at a spot about 200 yards from the place where the girl's clothing was found last Tuesday. Her purse had been found earlier about 200 feet from the grave.

Coroner Paul Mellinger said marks indicated the girl probably was strangled.

He said preliminary investigation showed she had been sexually assaulted.

Jewelers Meet

MONTREAL (CP) — Six hundred jewelers from all parts of Canada were registered here today as the four-day convention of the Canadian Jewelers' Association got under way. A specal train from Toronto brought 200 members from Ontario points. They were welcomed by a committee headed by Roland Lord, president of the association's Quebec branch.

Hopeless Effort Made To Defend Nanking

NANKING (AP)—The Chinese government today massed about 150,000 troops on a 300-mile front in what neutral observers describe as a hopeless effort to defend Nanking.

Communist armies with a total strength of more than 300,000 troops already are poised north of the Hwai River, 105 miles to the northwest, for a descent to the Yangtze River Valley.

The government's final abandonment of Pengpu and evacuation of towns on Pengpu's flanks have yielded the Communists necessary river crossing areas. Pengpu, anchor of the erstwhile Hwai River defence line, has been outflanked by the Communists for a month.

Realization of the government's weak military position is spurring active appeals by the general public and official bodies for government action to make a peace settlement with the Comunists.

PEACE DELEGATION

In North China, a peace delegation prepared to leave Peiping today for cease-fire talks with the Reds amid indications of a climax approaching at that besieged ancient capital.

Rossland's Mayor To Run For Commons

TRAIL, B.C. (CP)—Mayor J. R. Corner of Rossland will carry the Kootenay West Progressive Conservative standard in the next federal election, it was decided by delegates here Saturday at a nominating convention of the West Kootenay Progressive Conservative convention.

Corner, Rossland businessman and a veteran of 12 years in the Rossland City Council, defeated Peter Dewdney in his bid for the nomination. Dewdney, a veteran of the Royal Canadian Navy in the Second World War, is on the legal staff of Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company at Trail.

Inquiry In April

OTTAWA (CP)—The current series of hearings before the Board of Transport Commissioners is expected to occupy the board until late March, deferring the opening of its general freight rate inquiry until perhaps early April.

At present, the board is hearing a railway application for higher freight tolls and at the same time is receiving evidence on a cabinet-directed review of its decision in awarding rate increases to the railways last March.

Besides that issue, the board also has before it an application from British Columbia for removal of the "mountain differential."

Rita Hayworth To Marry Aly Kahn

CANNES, France (AP)—Rita Hayworth and Aly Khan announced today they will be married as soon as he is divorced from his present wife.

The Aly Khan received newspapermen at his chateau near here and handed them typewritten statements from himself and Miss Hayworth.

He said "I am going to marry Miss Hayworth as soon as I am free to do so."

Miss Hayworth declared she was "in full agreement" with the statement made by the son of the fabulously wealthy Aga Khan.

Miss Hayworth has recovered from an attack of grippe in the seclusion of Aly's villa here, his secretary, Mario Magliano, reported.

SHELTERED GOUZENKO—Official recognition is being sought for Mrs. Doris Elliott, above, 54-year-old wife of an Ottawa civil servant, who gave Igor Zouzenko and his family shelter on the eve of his disclosures about a Soviet spy ring in Canada. Mrs. Elliott, now critically ill in an Ottawa hospital, was aware Soviet agents were seeking the former cipher clerk and was a witness at the trials following the arrest of the members of the ring. Her doctor says testifying when she was ill aggravated her illness.—(CP Photo)

TROUBLED PROSPECTS

RIOTING AMONG INDIANS AND South African natives in Durban last weekend has given added emphasis to a racial situation in the southern member of the Commonwealth that will have to be faced probably sooner than later. A population of 8,000,000 negroes, living without full citizenship rights and lacking most of the necessities commonly identified with 20th Century existence, has been stirred by the postwar urge of backward peoples to improve their political and economic lot. In addition to the negro inhabitants of the southern Dominion, there are 285,000 Indians, immigrants or descendants of immigrants who now constitute a substantial element of the population. Their protest against the inferior political position they occupy is a long-standing one. Mohandas K. Gandhi, as a young lawyer fresh from his English training, busied himself in efforts to improve their plight.

Although the unrest of the past few days is not directly concerned with reaction to the system of "white supremacy," it is not difficult to discover roots of the trouble in the current sociological set-up of South Africa. Where caste is rigidly enforced, antagonism is common between the different groups which suffer relegation to an inferior role. Since the dignity of full citizenship is denied, the feeling of civic responsibility is also lacking. Such a situation is strongly conducive to outbreaks such as have just been experienced. Retaliation against similarly oppressed groups takes the place of revolt against the ruling element.

That element, in the case of South Africa, consists of about 2,400,000 whites, who dominate a native population more than three times as numerous. Like most ruling minorities, they fear the eventual loss of supremacy—a motive which causes them to support steps which are not in harmony with the trend of world liberalism, nor with the expressed political ideals of the British Commonwealth. Such a move, for example, was the election last May of the Nationalist Party to form a government under Dr. Francois Malan. Prominent in the Malan platform was the promise to establish a republican form of government with the non-European vote excluded, and "the development of non-European races along lines of territorial, economic and social segregation." In view of the forces stirring throughout the globe today, and the efforts of the leading western nations to assist in fashioning a better world for all, the present course of South African thinking is obviously against the tide. The forecast, therefore, must be for further unrest, further strife and an eventual showdown. The hands of the clock cannot be permanently set back.

FACTS OR FANCIES?

WHEN HE ADDRESSED THE CANAdian Women's Club of New York on Saturday, Hon. Douglas Abbott, Dominion Minister of Finance, presented to his audience an optimistic picture of the future of his native land. He spoke of the discovery of "vast supplies of important raw materials" and pointedly hinted that Canada was on the threshold of a "further tremendous expansion of production and economic power"—which would lead "to a strengthening of our trading position with the United States."

Mr. Abbott was not making a political speech. He was giving an account of his concept of this country's future prospects in the economic realm as they concern Canada's relations with a neighbor now proudly pointing to a population of no less than 148,000,000. It was right and proper that he should do so. By another token, the Finance Minister's observations will be duly noted by Progressive Conservative Leader George Drew. For the former Premier of Ontario seems to have selected for his main topic on his western tour of the Dominion the argument that if the guardian of the federal treasury is able to collect some $600,000,000 more in the current fiscal year than he requires for the satisfaction of the same fiscal year's actual cost of government, the people should be given considerable relief in taxation.

The recently-elected leader of the official Opposition, of course, knows full well that when he advances this dictum he is indulging in a species of political philandering through which, we suggest, an intelligent electorate will see. What Mr. Drew does not tell his audiences is that unless the Ottawa government applies the results of prudent budgeting to the gradual liquidation of a national debt of approximately $17,000,000,000, the taxpayers of the country will have to make up their minds to a continuing load of fixed charges that will not decrease. And the alternative to economic honesty, in other words, is a form of repudiation of which no explanation is necessary.

Mr. Drew and his campaigning spokesmen are advocating substantial reductions in taxation, increased pensions, more funds for public works, millions for this and millions for that; but they conveniently ignore the basic fact that there is only one taxpayer's dollar from which the cost of all these demands can be carved. And what kind of money does the leader of the Progressive Conservative Party propose to use for those new items of national defence, for the preservation of that measure of liberty so essential for the future of this young and thriving member of the British Commonwealth, and to meet the inescapable financial demands which the Dominion's participation in the Atlantic Pact so obviously will entail?

The people of this country should keep in mind, especially when they are importuned to replace the present administration at Ottawa with one over which the former Premier of Ontario would like to preside, the fact that something like $1,000,000,000 may be required to meet the annual charges on the national debt, the care and rehabilitation of men who fought in two world wars, and such preparations as may be considered requisite for Canada's share in the "containment" of Communism.

All this boils down to one basic policy which every Canadian will understand. The national treasury is trying to pay its way.

It is a difficult enough job at best; but it is the road to a stable economy.

'PRINTING WEEK'

BECAUSE OF THE ESTEEM IN WHICH his memory is held by the craft, and because so many of his precepts could be observed to advantage now, it is natural that the International Association of Printing House Craftsmen throughout North America should observe the 243rd anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin as the outstanding feature of its "Printing Week" today. The United States clearly appreciates the debt she owes to "the humble printer of Philadelphia". And since his opinions have exercised their influence on American thought for two centuries, recognition of his contribution to the development of a responsible press in the New World is not ignored.

The significance of printing, of course, far antedates the time of Franklin. The craft has been termed by scholars the medium which turned the darkness of the Middle Ages into light. Suitable acknowledgement has been given of its importance from the time of Johann Gutenberg in the middle of the Fifteenth Century, up through the years to the present, when improvements are still being made.

In this age, when the plethora of publications in any language defy complete digestion by any individual, it is desirable to pause and to express that measure of appreciation due to the craft which has made possible the impression of the printed word in the fields of education, news, political ideals, commerce and industry. It is time, too, to give thought to the concepts of such men as Benjamin Franklin—an integral personality in the history of printing in the United States at least—and to recall his prayer, "May the Lord . . . inspire us with prudence in this time of danger . . . and unite us all, of whatever sect or nation, in one bond of peace, brotherly love and generous spirit . . . and give peace in all our borders." To the attainment of that objective, the printed word today must strive to do its part.

RED BERRIES AND RED TAPE

THERE WAS A DAY ONCE WHEN A Canadian producer could get in touch with a prospective customer in another country, explain his proposition and quote a price, and then, if the deal went through, ship his commodity and collect his payment. It all seemed pretty simple, and business was good. But it is not that easy any more.

Trade restrictions, currency restrictions and shortages, plans of national governments and international authorities, trading officials, commissions and a dozen other factors combine to complicate the procedure of getting the goods to the consumer and receiving his money in exchange. Admittedly, many of the government bodies are instrumental in bringing buyer and seller together. Canada's trade commissioner service has done valuable work, as well as the provincial departments. But to the layman, bewildered by the number of physicians and midwives who must attend the birth of a commodity sale, the whole thing tends to look top heavy.

Consider, for example, the case of the Fraser Valley processed berries. Since the British market disappeared as a result of the United Kingdom's shortage of dollars, British Columbia has been casting about for a substitute market. At the moment it is hoped to sell some of the berry pulp to Eire. But the day is past when a berry grower could ship the produce and have done with it. Eire purchasers do not have the dollars with which to buy, so they hope to receive some through the Economic Recovery Program of the United States—which will take time and negotiation. Other bodies concerned must also play their part, so that at the moment there are involved, in addition to the hopeful buyer and the hopeful seller, the export division of the Federal Trade and Commerce Department, the Special Products Board at Ottawa, the Canadian Trade Commissioner in Dublin, the Trade and Industry Department of British Columbia, and any number of boards and committees in Eire, to say nothing of the E.R.P. authorities. Somewhere in the maelstrom is the shipment of berries—well and truly processed. Let us hope the luck of the Irish holds.

NOTES

E.R.P. AND PERMANENT CRISIS

THE INTERIM REPORT from Europe on the prospects of the Marshall plan will not be easy to reconcile with the theory, held by many but not all who are in high places—that the balance of forces between the Soviets and the West is progressively improving, and that it is advantageaus to postpone the negotiation of partial settlements.

The Economist in London, which speaks with great authority, says that "the Marshall plan, in the rather simple form originally conceived, cannot succeed within the time originally set. There is no means by which the Marshall countries can, even with the present scale of American aid, prevent a serious fall in their standards of living in 1952. If the time were longer—fifteen or twenty years—they could do more; but as a four-year proposition, the task is beyond their joint resources."

THIS CONCLUSION rests on official estimates which are in themselves admittedly extremely optimistic about European prospects—as for example, that the European output per man hour can, despite the scarcity of capital, be increased by 15 per cent in the four years; that European exports can capture half of the American market in South America; and that the American export industry "will reconcile itself to the permanent loss of its European markets" and "permit discrimination against itself."

These disclosures, arising out of the experience of the first year of E.R.P., will, says The Economist, be "greeted with indignation as well as regret." Not necessarily with indignation. Not if the truth is candidly presented to the Eighty-first Congress. American public opinion is sufficiently matured and educated not to give way to a paroxysm of despair because a great experiment, necessarily one of trial and error, is showing that new decisions are needed.

FOR PRACTICAL experience of the Marshall plan has shown that while American aid to Europe is not going to produce the results hoped for when it was adopted, its real function has been to provide the stricken nations with time to face their problems. Had the countries been compelled to adjust suddenly and immediately their standards of life to their actual earning power, the strain on their governments and their institutions would have been intolerable. Whether the strain would have resulted in communism, fascism, or anarchy is debatable; it is certain that the essential freedoms and decencies of their lives would have been impaired.

For that reason the American people, and this Congress, will not cut off Marshall aid.

BUT WHAT THEY WILL have to consider deeply is whether the time which is bought by the American subsidy is being wisely used. This is a very complicated question which cannot be answered readily or simply. Look at solely from the point of view of what the various European countries are doing, it might be concluded broadly that the United Kingdom is at one end of the scale, Greece at the other, and the rest at various points in between.

The United Kingdom is a shining example of a country which is using the time gained by the subsidy for a prodigious, almost ruthless, effort to adjust itself to the fact that it is much poorer than it was, and must learn to live accordingly. The British may not succeed in making themselves independent of American subsidies by 1952. But if they do not wholly succeed, it will not be because they are not trying.

THERE IS NO EVIDENCE in Britain of the disposition to use the time gained to postpone, rather than to deal with, the grave problems of post-war readjustment.

What was not seen clearly last year, but can be seen much more clearly now, is that these great readjustments within most of the European countries cannot be averted by the Marshall plan. Nor can they be postponed indefinitely. It is here that the cold war, in its present phase, enters into the problem. There is no immediate danger, provided the western democracies maintain a firm policy backed by their rearmament, of a Soviet military conquest of Europe. Nor is there any present danger of a Communist seizure of power in Western Europe, especially if France and Italy are enabled to augment the forces required to maintain order at home.

The real problem is how to provide the European Continent with the confidence to dare to deal with its internal postwar readjustment. That confidence will never, I think can never, exist, as long as the Russian Army is in the heart of Europe. It can begin to exist only as and when the Russian Army begins to recede to the frontiers of the Soviet Union. For while many European countries can deal with insurrection by fifth columns, they cannot feel secure enough to face their domestic problems as long as thirty-five or 40 motorized divisions of the Red Army are on the Elbe within striking distance to intervene in civil disorders.

THAT IS WHY, in the view of many who are entitled to judge these things, it is so desirable to seek out even partial compromise settlements—particularly for Berlin and for Austria—which will relax the tension. I know that it can be argued that if the tension is relaxed, the effort to deal with all these great issues will also be relaxed. But it is, I believe, an unwarranted defeatism to think that the Europeans will not try to recover or that Americans will default on their responsibilities in Europe unless the conflict with the Soviet Union remains in a condition of permanent crisis.

Good Times Create Political Problem

By JAMES THRASHER from New York

MOST of the expert forecasters have picked 1949 to be another good business year. And while forecasting may have lost a little public confidence since November, there are good reasons for taking these learned gentlemen at their word.

FAVORABLE OUTLOOK

Predictions are for continued high employment (around 60,000,000 jobholders), increased production in most short items except low-cost housing, a gradual but continuing drop in prices, and other symptoms of "normalcy." All this, if it comes true, is good news for everybody. But the joy in the higher echelons of the Republican Party must be tempered by the thought that this good news makes the G.O.P.'s future task considerably harder.

The Republicans' greatest obstacle, it seems to us, is that not enough Americans are economically unhappy. Oh sure, all of us would like more money. A lot of self-employed persons and white collar and unorganized workers feel that they are the helpless victims of rising prices and wages. Yet millions of others are having it better now than they ever did before.

Since the business experts see no major recession on the horizon, what sort of line should the G.O.P. take to win the majority of the voters to its side before the congressional election of 1950 and the presidential election of 1952? National Committee Chairman Hugh Scott has been trying to find out. And in searching for an answer he has solicited letters from Republican voters.

NORMAL AND HEALTHY

The majority of replies he has received, according to published reports, favor a "militant" or "positive" or "progressive" conservatism. Grass-roots Republicans don't want their representatives to be "me too" New Dealers.

That is a healthy, normal sentiment. But just what tack is the G.O.P. going to take? The classic one, of course, is to offer the people more of something they want than they are getting now. More of what is another matter.

More economy? That was a salable commodity 10 years ago in the days of the New Deal deficit spending. But we have had balanced budgets since the war. Increased defence spending and foreign aid may put us back on a deficit basis in the coming fiscal year. Even so, that won't give the Republicans much of a talking point, for defence and foreign aid are matters on which most members of both parties in Congress agree in principle.

Then what is to be promised? Federal housing? Federal aid for health, education, etc? Broadened social security, higher minimum wages, continued high support prices? All of those were originally proposed by Democrats. To string along with them makes the Republicans "me-tooers." To oppose them clearly invites another defeat.

TOO CONTENTED

From the G.O.P. standpoint, too many people are too contented with things as they are. In spite of high taxes, high prices, and an uneasy peace, it's a sort of out-of-focus Coolidge complacency. And the best or, from a G.O.P. political standpoint, worst of it is that things look about as good for the foreseeable future.

First Man Ashore Made History

By A. L. BRIANT, in the Melbourne Argus

IN the London Sphere of December 4, 1937, appeared a photograph of a gold jewel-box which, among other antiques, was being offered for sale in Amsterdam the following week. On the lid of the box was inscribed the words: "Isaac Smith, the first man to land in Australia."

SUPPORTS BELIEF

The Royal Australian Historical Society is bent upon tracing that jewel-box to its ultimate destination. Meanwhile, its existence has deepened the long-held belief that Smith was the first Englishman to set foot on any portion of the east coast of Australia.

It was on April 28, 1770 (ship's log date; calendar date was April 29), that Captain Cook entered what is now Botany Bay, in the barque Endeavour (368 tons), 11 days after he had first sighted Australia near Cape Everard.

Anchor was dropped off the south shore at 2 p.m., and an hour later, with Dr. Solander (Swedish scientist), Sir Joseph Banks (English botanist to be described as "Patron of Australia"), Cook was rowed to the nearest landing place, a flat rock in deep, calm water. His wife's nephew, young Isaac Smith, A.B., was seated in the bow, eager for adventure, for blacks had been sighted, carrying long spears.

The story of what followed, and it was told to Arthur Kitson, Cook's biographer, by Canon Bennett, second cousin of Mrs. Cook, is that when the rock was reached, Cook stood up and called to Smith, "Jump out, Isaac."

It was a feat easy of accomplishment, as I know, because I stood on the selfsame spot early this year, when a memorial recording the event was unveiled by Mr. K. R. Cramp, in his capacity of chairman of the Captain Cook's Landing Place Trust, a dynamic body which has laid out beautiful lawns and picnic grounds, and furnished them with suitable memorials to Cook, Banks, Solander, and poor Forby Sutherland, who died during the Endeavour's brief stay in the bay.

LITTLE AVAILABLE

Now, Isaac Smith is commemorated among the splendid company of the Endeavour. Unfortunately, very little detail is available about him.

We know that he had exceptional skill in "surveying and planning," because Cook, who made use of his abilities, took him on his second Pacific voyage, by which time Isaac had become a Master's Mate, although still only 19 years of age.

Further rapid promotion, and transference to another ship in the Navy, prevented him from accompanying Cook on his third and last ill-fated Pacific voyage. Smith was to see active service against the French, under the famous Hyde Parker, and as Post-Captain commanded H.M.S. Perseverance under Cornwallis, in the East Indies.

Upon his retirement in 1793, owing to ill-health, he was given the rank of rear-admiral. He inherited Gatehouse, Merton Abbey, so closely associated with Nelson, and died there on July 21, 1831, aged 78 years.

In Cook's Journal of the second Pacific voyage, he refers to the "very accurate charts of all the discoveries we have made, executed by a young man who has been bred to the sea under my care, and who has been a very great assistant to me in his way, both in this and my former voyage."

BRAVE ACT

That was Isaac Smith. He was also brave. It was no carefree venture to step ashore, knowing that there were aborigines only a few yards away, with poised spears in their hands. In fact, they had thrown others before the boat touched the rock.

The least romantic association with Kurnell, perhaps, is its name—said to have been derived from a corrupted and aboriginal sounding of Connell, name of the first owner of the site, now cherished and guarded as our greatest national memorial.

Saving The Records

Washington Post

Where would the writers of history go for their source material if they could not depend upon libraries to preserve the records of the past? That is the question raised by a reminder from the head of the reference department of New York City's Public Library that all the books published since 1870 when rag paper was replaced by paper made from wood pulp have a comparatively short life. The Gutenberg Bible printed nearly 500 years ago, Mr. Rice says, is in much better condition than most of the books published 50 or 60 years ago. At maximum a wood-pulp book may last about a hundred years, while newspapers and pamphlets last not more than 50 years, if handled carefully and not used too often.

GLOBAL SURVEY

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

WE owe the United Nations a debt of gratitude for securing an armistice in the Kashmir crisis which threatened to plunge the Indian peninsula into conflict.

The warring Dominions of India and Pakistan—both eager to absorb this huge, rich state—have grounded arms. There is to be a plebiscite to determine which Dominion the people of Kashmir wish to join, for it is essential that they attach themselves to one or the other. Britain, in granting independence to the whole Indian peninsula, strongly urged that the principalities affiliate with one of the Dominions.

So the U.N. commission, having made its prideful report at Lake Success, is heading back to supervise the voting.

DELICATE ASPECT

A highly interesting but delicate aspect of this situation is that the commission will have to work with the Maharajah of Kashmir, Sir Hari Singh. He is the autocratic and haughty ruler of some 4,000,000 people. His state, which is one of the world's beauty spots, is nearly as large as Britain and provides an annual income running up to $175,000,000.

The position has been complicated by the fact that the vast majority of the population is Moslem, while the prince is a Hindu. That at once presents a clash in interests, since the Maharajah's leanings naturally are towards predominantly Hindu India whereas his people might be expected to favor Pakistan which is predominantly Moslem.

PRECIPITATED FIGHT

While Earl Mountbatten still was viceroy of British India before independence became effective, he urged the Maharajah to consult the people of Kashmir to see which Dominion they preferred. However, the prince delayed until after the transfer of power had been made and then announced that he wished to join Hindu India. That precipitated the India-Pakistan fight.

CLIPPED at RANDOM

DRUNKEN DRIVERS

Winnipeg Free Press

An English magistrate recently canceled the driving licence of a drunken driver for life. This seems a pretty harsh judgment; though it might not seem so harsh to a family that has had one of its members killed by a drunken driver.

It is observed in the Chatham News that if any Canadian magistrate passed out such a punishment there would be a howl of indignation at the severity of the judgment. But, what about the victims—those who are killed by drunken drivers? If more severe penalties will deter people from driving automobiles while drunk, the public is entitled to this protection.

BACK TO BEARDS

London (Ont.) Free Press

Did the male lose his post as head of the family when he shaved his beard? This profound problem is raised by a vistor to London from the Head of the Lakes. He is an entrant in Fort William's Winter Carnival Beard Growing Contest, and in addition to the set of whiskers wears a tam with the mystic inscription, "Beard Contestant—I wear the pants in my family."

Now it is an old legend that in Victorian days Father was no mere figure of fun in the family. And in those days beards were far commoner than now, when they adorn only matelots, artists and occasional newspaper editors. Is this more than a coincidence? If it was will we see a scramble back to the beard?

NATIONAL MILK PLAN

Toronto Star

Mr. Robert Taylor, The Star's correspondent in Ottawa, wrote this week that dairy farmers may soon ask the federal government to initiate a national plan to distribute free milk to children in Canada. The program would be urged by the farmers in order to use the milk surplus which has become evident in some parts of Canada and which may increase. When margarine comes on the market, it is believed it may create an additional surplus of milk.

Social workers and nutritionists have for some time been urging a program to improve the nutrition of children and expectant and nursing mothers. Social experts have been deeply concerned about the recent drop in milk consumption, owing chiefly to rising prices.

Better Stability In Canadian Movie Market Than U.S.

TORONTO—"Although, in the motion picture industry, it has been considered axiomatic that the Canadian market was identical with the American, trends in the Dominion's film industry did not parallel those in the United States last year," said Hon. Earl Lawson, K.C., president of Odeon Theatres of Canada.

"In 1948, the point of difference of chief importance was the greater stability of the Canadian market.

"In Canada, the evidence is that the long-term upward trend in consumer expenditures for motion picture entertainment still continues. Readjustment, following the abnormal spending which characterizes war periods, has been occurring without serious effect on the industry here. The Canadian situation has been materially helped by the fact that box office prices—the cost of film entertainment to the public—had not increased materially as they had elsewhere nor as had the costs of other goods and services regularly in demand by the average Canadian family."

BRITISH FILMS

"British films, following the inaguration of effective merchandising and distribution methods late in 1945, now have a substantial and established following in Canada," Mr. Lawson said. "Essentially, this market consists of a steadily-widening percentage of the regular and general movie-going public which has been seeking greater variety in entertainment and finds that a blending of British and American film programs is the preferable means of securing this.

"During 1948, the film industry internationally has been greatly concerned about television and its probable relationship to motion pictures.

"On Dec. 21, the J. Arthur Rank group in Britain conducted large-screen cinema - television demonstrations publicly at a suburban theatre in the London area. The reports to the Canadian organization from technical representatatives present at the demonstration state that television images of nearly normal theatre-screen size were projected and that the quality was approximately that of the usual film presentation. The equipment used for the purpose, not hitherto publicly demonstrated, was developed by the J. Arthur Rank Company, Cinema-Television Limited.

"From the standpoint of Odeon theatres and other P. Arthur Rank companies in Canada, the results can be taken to mean that there is no technical barrier to the addition of television to theatre programs if that should become practical, economical and definite public demand develop for television in Canadian theatres."

More Skill Needed In Bricklaying Than Generation Ago

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

A word in defence of the bricklayer comes from Allan Ross, President of the Canadian Construction Association.

It seems that a lot of people who have never had a trowel in their hands go around muttering "Why doesn't the bricklayer lay more bricks? Why does he lay only 300 to 800 today, against 2,000 or more some years ago, when he new gets much more money?"

Wait now, Mr. Ross says in effect, things are different. In the old days a man might be laying a 17-inch brick wall. Aside from the face, he could throw in those bricks almost any way, and it was no stunt to put in 2,000 or so.

But today, that kind of wall isn't being built. Nearly all brick work is facing, with a smoother brick which must be laid in perfect alignment. And that, explains Mr. Ross, takes a lot more time.

HIGHER AGE LEVEL

Also, he adds, today's bricklayer is older. In the depression '30s he didn't encourage his son to take up a trade in which there was so much idleness, and it attracted few apprentices. There may be a sign of a break now because a number of men have learned the trade.

Even the pay, Mr. Ross says, is not always as high as it seems, because so much bricklaying is out-of-doors that it is subject to more than average loss of time from bad weather.

He gave his views in an informal chat with newspapermen preliminary to next week's annual convention of the association, at which one of the topics will be the problem of a continuing supply of skilled men for the building industry.

Intruder Throws Infant On Floor

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A six-month-old infant was dashed to the floor early Sunday by a man surprised as he was about to attack her three-year-old sister.

The baby, Mildred Litsko, suffered a fracture of the skull.

Mrs. Mildred Litsko, 19, mother of the children, told police a giant negro, armed with a pistol, sneaked into her second-floor apartment shortly after midnight.

He hurled the infant to the floor and then attempted to assault another child, Virginia, three, who was in her crib.

Mrs. Litsko sprang at the man and battled with the thug, who finally fled.

Rev. A. J. Vining Dies In Toronto

TORONTO (CP)—One of Canada's best-known Baptist ministers, Rev. A. J. Vining, died here Sunday, aged 86.

A forthright and persuasive preacher, he was ordained in 1890. He preached his last sermon 58 years later—in Kincardine, Ont., last Sept. 5.

Most of his pastorates were in Ontario, but in 1897 he served in Winnipeg.

From 1910 to 1913 he was financial secretary of the Baptist World Alliance and campaigned in the United States for funds to establish a European Baptist College in Russia.

Fail To Apprehend Boy Purse-Snatcher

Up to this morning city police had been unable to uncover the youth who Saturday night at 8 tripped Miss Olive Cook, 28, of 705 Cook Street, and made off with her purse containing $7 in cash and a Dominion government cheque for $58.

Miss Cook was able to furnish police with a fairly good description of the thief. She said he was between 16 and 17 years old, was thin, had dark hair and was wearing a light brown trench coat and dark trousers.

The woman was walking west on Burdett Avenue by Christ Church Cathedral, police reported after hearing her story, when the young man came up behind and tripped her. Miss Cook was thrown to the pavement and her assailant then grabbed the purse and disappeared into the cathedral grounds.

This was the second incident of the same nature this year. In the same district on Jan. 5 a youth failed to snatch the purse from a woman who was in the act of mailing a letter in a postbox.

B.C. Approves Plans To Double Capacity Of Vancouver Hospital

The provincial cabinet today approved plans of the Vancouver General Hospital to double its patient capacity.

Provincial Secretary and Health and Welfare Minister George S. Pearson announced that the provincial government today had endorsed the hospital's project to build accommodation for 300 convalescent and chronic beds which will make available in the hospital further beds for acute patients. At the same time the government gave the hospital assurance that financial help would be available for its project to provide 815 more acute beds.

The present capacity of the hospital is 1,100 beds.

The 300 convalescent and chronic beds will cost about $1,500,000. The larger project may cost from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000 it was estimated unofficially.

It is expected that the 300 convalescent and chronic beds will not be available for at least 18 months. The 815 acute beds will not be available for at least four years, it is thought.

The government's decision followed discussions between officials of the Vancouver General Hospital and the provincial cabinet. Representing the hospital were A. C. DesBrisay, chairman of the hospital board, and Alderman George Miller of Vancouver.

James A. Hamilton, hospital administration consultant to both the Vancouver General and the provincial government, and Dr. J. M. Hershey, B.C. government hospital insurance commissioner, were present at the discussions.

Mr. Pearson said that Vancouver city area has a minimum number of beds to accommodate the actual needs of the people but there was no real shortage of hospital beds. In the upper Fraser Valley, however, there is definitely a shortage of hospital beds.

Some relief to the situation will come when the construction of accommodation for 220 beds at the Royal Columbian Hospital in New Westminster is completed sometime in the near future.

The 300-bed convalescent and chronic hospital building will become part of the convalescent and chronic centre of the hospital.

It is proposed that Vancouver will contribute one-third of the cost of the 300-bed project while the provincial government will assume the bulk of the remainder.

Plans for this project are expected to be completed within three months.

Mr. Pearson pointed out that other hospital building projects may be undertaken in the Fraser Valley before long.

Vancouver General is already one of the largest hospitals in Canada.

Former Investigator To Publish Memoirs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert E. Stripling said Sunday he had sold newspaper publication rights to his account of the 10 years he worked for the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Representative Arthur Klein (Dem., N.Y.) immediately called for an investigation by the House rules committee. Stripling recently resigned as chief investigator for the committee. He told a reporter he had sold rights to his memoirs to King Features Syndicate. Glein said he would introduce legislation at once calling for the investigation. He said it was reasonable to inquire whether any confidential material from committee files had been removed for Stripling's benefit.

Stripling said that no committee material not already made public in hearings would be used.

Old Streetcar Becomes A Church

The town of Prichard, Miss., was without an organized church. So T. P. Howard, a church elder, wangled a used trolley car from a friend, and now old number 618, which once clanged around Memphis, Tenn., is filled with hymn singing every Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Elchue Denton Jr. take care of the musical part of the service, lower. Denton leads the singing as his wife plays the portable organ. The congregation, top, crowds into the trolley seats, transformed into pews. The elders and children combine meetings on Sunday in the trolley-church.

Baby Minister, 5, In Short Pants, Puts On Big Show

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Rev. Marjoe Gortner, five, appeared before some 1,200 of his followers and the curious in the Masonic Temple here Sunday. He beat drum, played an accordion, sang and delivered a sermon entitled: "To This End Was I Born."

In the audience were sailor Raymond Miller and his bride whose wedding was performed Jan. 2 by the child minister.

Master Gortner, an ordained minister of the Old-time Faith Church, observed his fifth birthday Friday and Sunday's was his first sermon as a five-year-old. He made quite a show of it.

Marjoe first appeared on the stage in a snappy drum major's uniform twirling a baton. But he shifted to a blue suit, with short pants, for the sermon, retaining only the white boots of his original garb.

Stamping his foot and pounding a tiny fist on his kid-size pulpit, he said:

"You know, brothers and sisters—what America needs is better Christian mothers. I thank God for my Christian mother."

He admonished parents to read the Bible and pray more; stay home, take care of the children and "quit running around so much."

Sir G. Rowlands Dies

To Erect Medical Building At U.B.C.

VANCOUVER (CP) — Tenders will be called at the end of March for construction of a $1,500,000 medical building at the University of British Columbia, it was announced at the week-end from the office of President Norman MacKenzie.

He said a medical teaching faculty will be organized as soon as possible. The first step will be appointment of a dean.

Earlier, President MacKenzie had been quoted as saying that a medical faculty could not be established at the university for at least two years, but the new announcement emphasized a permanent faculty would be selected, and the necessary buildings erected at the earliest possible date.

The building for which tenders will be called in March is planned to house bacteriology, preventive, medicine, nursing and health departments.

A second building for medical sciences, costing $1,500,000, will be planned after the first building is begun.

Coming General Election Important For Canada's Senate

By DOUGLAS HOW

OTTAWA (CP) — Informed opinion here sees the next general election as a potentially-crucial event in the career of the Canadian Senate.

If the Liberals win, its lopsided representation would soon be carried to lengths that would invite if not force change.

If the Progressive Conservatives win, they would probably merely go ahead redressing the balance as vacancies occur—at the acerage rate of five to six a year.

If the C.C.F. wins, it is in record as favoring abolition of the chamber.

A recent heavy series of deaths among Senators and the fact that the three most recent appointments have involved men more than 70 years of age have provoked a flurry of speculation about its future. Appointments are made for life by the prime minister and bring an income of $6,000 a year.

The current standing is: Liberals 65, Progressive Conservatives 16, with 15 vacancies. There is no reason to believe that before the election, which may come this year, the government won't fill both the vacancies and the six new Newfoundland seats with Liberals, making the party's strength 86.

Of the Conservative members, six now are more than 80 years of age, four are more than 70, the other six more than 60. A number of them take little or no part in debates.

The cabinet, too busy with more immediate matters, has shown no particular interest in reform and the general attitude has been to leave the problem to the Senate itself. Within its ranks, there have been several movements for change in the last few years and another is expected this coming session.

Most of the impetus has come from the ranks of the Liberals themselves, but so far all efforts have proved abortive.

First of the changes generally considered likely is an age limit of, say, 75. To this might be added a pension for Senators who have served 10 years, thus making 65 a sort of unwritten age limit for most newcomers.

Another proposal that has been suggested is to give the provincial governments power over a portion of the appointments. This would give a Senate voice to such parties as the C.C.F., Social Credit and Union Nationale, which have elected provincial governments.

Annual Meeting of Shareholders

The Royal Bank of Canada

Sydney G. Dobson, President, declares private enterprise the very basis of Canada's progress and freedom—Right to take risks and reap rewards the major motivating force in country's development — "Socialism and Communism are not systems of freedom, but of rationed democracy, in which liberty is doled out like social security benefits."

James Muir, Vice-President and General Manager, reports new high records in field of Canadian Banking — Royal Bank assets exceed $2,222,000,000 — Deposits reach new Canadian record of $2,067,488,000—Profits moderately higher—$4,000,000 added to Reserve Fund.

The threat to personal freedom inherent in the Socialist and Communist philosophies, and the high promise of Canada's future were stressed at the Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of The Royal Bank of Canada. "On the evidence before the world today, capitalism works" said Sydney G. Dobson, President. "It works so well that the lowest paid workers in these North American democracies are better fed, better housed, and better supplied with the comforts of life than are the great mass of the population of collectivist countries. And they enjoy freedom.

"Our successful development of natural resources confirms our belief in private enterprise as the best motivating force in an economic system. All the natural resources imaginable are useless until they are brought out where they can be turned into serviceable goods, and the primary seeker, the most successful finder, and the greatest manufacturer has been private enterprise.

"Under this system people think hard and work hard because there are reasonable rewards. The need of incentives is recognized in every country where men are free to choose whether they shall work or not work, and how hard they shall work.

"In all collectivist economies—Communistic or Socialistic—the idea prevails that dictators or bureaucrats can arrange the lives of people better than people can do it for themselves. Capitalism, on the other hand, believes that individuals should be free to express their abilities and thereby bring about a better standard of living and a better social order.

"Our system hinges on initiative, the courage to invest capital, the right to take a reasonable profit from such enterprises as are successful and the obligation to stand such losses as may be incurred in enterprises which fail.

THREAT TO FREEDOM

"Socialism and Communism do not seek to make the best of people's minds and enterprise. On the contrary, their process is to level all people by dragging down those who might have superior attainments. They need a strong centralized government with control over all sections of the economy. They are not systems of freedom; but of rationed democracy, in which liberty is doled out like social security benefits. Incentives are lost, and individual initiative is smothered. Standards of work and product remain unimproved, because jobs are assured without regard for efficiency or performance. The ambition of men declines to doing just as much as has to be done and no more. Progress is sacrificed to a worship of averages—and they are averages somehow arrived at so as to be well within the reach of the least progressive. Promotion on merit is abandoned in favor of promotion in turn. Skilled workers receive very little more than unskilled workers. It is only natural that such a state of affairs should drive the best brains out of a country.

"I believe in equality, so long as it is equality of opportunity in education, careers and public life. Socialism is a force which holds back, while enterprise is a force which propels us forward, and gives men and women a chance to display their talent and their worth."

FOREIGN TRADE

While Canada's export figures had shown satisfactory gains during the past few months, Mr. Dobson warned that, "there is nothing in our foreign trade picture today about which we can afford to be complacent.

"Our present peak of business is being maintained to a large extent by artificial respiration in the form of credits from Canada and the United States. To realize our position we need only imagine what would be the state of our commerce—and therefore of our standard of living—if the Economic Recovery Programme and our own loans to Europe were suddenly cut off.

"It is true that we can examine our rising export business of the past few months with certain satisfaction. Last October saw us strike a new high record in domestic exports, both in total and in shipments to the United States. Our total in the first 11 months of 1948 was $250 million higher than the corresponding period of 1947."

Turning to domestic affairs, Mr. Dobson noted that while the pressure of demand has tended to push prices steadily higher, there has been a levelling off in the rate of increase.

PRICES

"It is with regard to prices," he said, "that the manufacturer and the business man have their greatest worries. No matter how they balance increased labour costs with technical advance, and other increased costs with prevention of waste, they are driven, in spite of all their ingenuity, to raise prices to their customers.

"It seems to me that those who work for wages are ill-advised when they rush into demands which are planned to give them an immediate advantage through increased wages, while losing sight of the fact that there is an important long-term aspect to be considered. How much money a worker makes is far less significant than how much he can buy, and if he is to buy anything at all his employer must be able to stay in competition with manufacturers in the rest of the world."

ELECTRIC POWER

The importance of Canada's hydro-electric power development to the national economy was emphasized by Mr. Dobson. Wide distribution of power and its healthy development had been, he said, vital factors in promoting Canada's industrial progress and maintaining a high standard of living. "Each installed hydraulic horse-power, if operated continuously throughout the year, would be the equivalent of the power obtained from 4 tons of coal. On this basis, the present hydraulic installation in Canada might be said to represent the annual use of about 44 million tons of coal.

"There are still large reserves available for development. A government tabulation shows 40 million horse-power available, and a little less than eleven million developed by turbine installation."

Discovery of additional oil in Alberta and Saskatchewan was a favorable development to which Mr. Dobson made special reference. "It has become evident," said Mr. Dobson, "that Western Canada, and particularly Alberta, has become one of the brightest prospects of our future supply. It is forecast that by 1950 the oil requirements of our Prairies will be satisfied out of home production and there may be a surplus available for other markets. This is important because every barrel of oil produced and consumed in Canada conserves from three to five dollars of United States dollar exchange."

CONCLUSION

"I believe that more attention needs to be paid to the education of our people in the responsibilities as well as the advantages of democratic citizenship. Too much stress is being placed, these days, on human rights and not enough on human obligations. If it is reasonable for a man to expect to be taken care of when disaster threatens or strikes him, he should be educated to know that he needs to contribute his share to the welfare of the nation. I deplore the increasing trend among a portion of the younger generation today to think too much of security and not enough about going out and really accomplishing something for themselves.

"We live in a world where we should not expect to receive something for nothing. This is an old, old law recognized in economics, and no discovery by any political party or reform faction has ever found a permanent substitute. Queer creeds based on ease and leisure may rise and flourish for a time, but they always run into difficulty which can be overcome only by work."

GENERAL MANAGER'S ADDRESS

Mr. James Muir, Vice-President and General Manager, reviewed the bank's 1948 Annual Report and noted that new high water marks in the bank's progress had been established during 1948. Assets had topped $2,222,000,000, a point never before reached. The bank's liquid assets equalled 74% of all liabilities to the public. Commercial loans in Canada had also increased denoting "an expansion of connections and clients as well as the fulfilment of the additional needs of old customers." Mr. Muir also noted a further substantial increase in the number of depositing clients and total deposits of $2,067,488,000, an increase of $133,303,000 over the previous year, and a new high water mark in the history of the bank. Earnings had been moderately higher, and in addition to providing for the customary deductions including taxes of $3,150,000 and increased dividends for Shareholders, had enabled the bank to transfer $4,000,000 to the Reserve Fund which now totalled $44,000,000. This left a carry forward in Profit and Loss Account of $1,532,000.

AID TO TRADE

The important role played by the Royal Bank's extensive system of foreign branches in furthering Canada's trade was stressed by Mr. Muir. "We have had a half-century's experience in this regard," he said, "Our oldest branch outside of Canada and Newfoundland, and still in operation, is that in Havana, Cuba, opened fifty years ago this spring. Apart from those in Newfoundland, we have at present 62 branches outside Canada, and, in addition to this direct representation which covers New York, London, Paris and most South American countries as well as the Caribbean area, we have unusually extensive correspondent relations with banks throughout the world. Your bank is in a preferred, if not unique, position to facilitate, as it has for many years facilitated, Canada's foreign trade activities.

NEED FOR ENTERPRISE

"Whatever the outlook for Canadian business in the short run, our long-run position should be secure. For our economic fortunes as a nation depend, not on disturbing short run ups and downs, but on our tremendous wealth in natural resources. Of course, natural resources are of little use unless they are developed. And I agree heartily, therefore, with what the President has just said about the need for ambition and enterprise.

"We Canadians might appraise ourselves our possibilities a little higher than we are inclined to do. No country on earth has a future that promises to surpass or even to equal ours. Whenever we forget that fact some Canadian voice must speak out, reminding us both of the greatness of our resources and the responsibility that rests upon us to take a mature and an ardent view of Canada's capacity for economic development. Then, surely, a breed of courageous, clear-sighted and Canada-conscious men will arise who will become acutely seized of the fact that we are in duty bound to develop these resources and endowments and deal with them in our day for the greater good of generations of Canadians yet to come.

PRAISE FOR STAFF

"It is no secret that public opinion of the bank is formed by and large through dealings with the staff, and so the Royal Bank's prestige is largely dependent on personnel—for it is through them that the bank is known to the world for what it is—good, bad, or indifferent. In all modesty, I feel I can properly say that the bank is held in the highest esteem, not only in Canada but in the many countries where we have branches.

"We have a large organization, 10,567 men and women, and if there is sometimes a tendency for members of the staff to feel that they are but very small cogs in a vast machine, I ask them to dismiss the thought, for every single job in the bank is important—every single job must be well done. That our staff, both men and women, are discharging these important duties with untiring efficiency and in good spirit is properly exemplified in the fact that the success embodied in this year's Annual Report is in no small measure due to their efforts. The Executive are fully aware of this—and acknowledge it gratefully.

"We have reason to be proud of our staff, and on their behalf I can tell the shareholders, the public, and our clients that they can all rely on the knowledge that the members of the staff will endeavour to continue to serve them well—with efficiency—with accuracy—and with friendliness."

Simplicity, Harmony Rules For 'Best Dressed Woman'

Toronto's Claire Wallace was chosen Canadian radio's best-dressed woman by women's page editors voting in a poll conducted by a nationally-circulated magazine.

The popular commentator, a former newspaperwoman herself, was one of three women in various fields who retained their places from last year. The others were Barbara Ann Scott and Mrs. George Drew.

A few simple rules which any woman can follow are the key to a well-turned-out look, at reasonable cost, according to Miss Wallace. She stresses that her own budget for clothes is very moderate, and the time she can salvage from the work of producing her thrice-weekly program "They Tell Me," is strictly limited. This is what she recommends:

Dress quietly and avoid extremes. Under dress rather than overdress and shun an excess of jewelery or frills.

Aim for smoothness; anything that tends to produce a striking contrast can be dangerous.

Make hats, shoes, gloves and accessories harmonize with the outfit. Don't forget that a large or gaudy hat becomes the focus of attention to the detriment of the remainder of your garb.

Give the wardrobe proper care. Hang dresses up so that they will retain shape and style, put shoes in a shoe bag; smooth gloves carefully before laying away. Rotate your wardrobe so that each outfit gets a "rest," and requires a minimum of journeys to the cleaner.

Choose simple outfits—both for good appearance and for the benefit of your poocket-book — which will be smart and suitable for many different occasions.

Use care in selecting materials and styles. Quality is good economy, and a little time spent in selection will repay you many times in long wear, and in the satisfaction you get from being well-groomed.

Claire Wallace of Toronto, whose thrice-weekly radio program "They Tell Me" is heard coast-to-coast, was chosen the best-dressed woman in Canadian radio for the second successive year by editors of woman's pages of Canadian daily newspapers.

Dorothy Dix

Dear Dorothy Dix: I have been married for four years and have three very small children. My husband makes a very poor salary and we are constantly in debt. Naturally he is worried and is subject to sudden outbursts of nerves and temper. When things go wrong he tells me he wishes he had never married, and sometimes he suggests that I go back to my family.

I love him and believe he loves the children and me, although he doesn't show it. I am a good manager, work hard and try to make a peaceful and happy home. What do you advise me to do?

UNHAPPY WIFE.

Answer: The thing that is the matter with your husband is lack of money, not lack of love for you and the children. It is the lack of money that makes domesticity a burden under which his courage withers and his strength fails. If he were a better sport, he would not take out on you his folly of marrying before he was ready for it, but you may well pity him for the agony he is enduring in being crushed by his load of debt and his hopelessness when he looks to the future.

If your family is willing and are in a position to have you with them, go for a short stay. It might help matters somewhat. It would at least give your husband time to reflect upon how fine and brave you are, and to realize how much he loves you and the children, and that you and they are his only solace in his misfortune. And with this knowledge, he may find the courage to buck up and carry on.

If you are buying several different items in a large department store, an efficient and time-saving way to shop is to start with the items that are sold on the upper floors and work your way down to the street floor. By doing this, you eliminate unnecessary trips up and down elevators and are less likely to forget items or lose wrapped-up packages.

For The Party

Orange Punch Special will serve 12-14 according to this recipe. Place 12 bottles orange soda (12 oz. size) in refrigerator to chill thoroughly; turn controls to freezing. Stir 1½ tbsp. lemon juice into 1½ c. fresh or frozen strawberries (crushed). If frozen berries are used, defrost them first. Add ⅛ tsp. salt to 2 egg whites in mixing bowl; beat until stiff but not dry with rotary egg beater. Add gradually ¼ c. sugar (use ¼ c. sugar with frozen berries). Add the sugar gradually, ½ tbsp. at a time, continuing to beat until well blended. Fold lightly into fruit.

Open one bottle of the orange soda. Pour into bowl slowly and fold beverage into the strawberry-meringue mixture. Transfer to refrigerator tray immediately and freeze. When orange-strawberry mixture is partly frozen, remove from refrigerator tray and turn into a well-chilled mixing bowl; beat until foamy and fruit is blended about one minute). Quickly return to refrigerator and continue freezing. When mixture begins to set, remove from freezing tray and beat again. Return to refrigerator and continue freezing until firm. Makes about 1½ quarts.

To prepare punch, transfer the orange-strawberry fizz to punch bowl. Open remaining 11 bottles of well-chilled orange carbonated beverage and pour slowly into punch bowl. Makes about 1¼ gallons punch.

To stiffen brush bristles, add two teaspoons of powdered alum to each cup of water used for rinsing the brush.

German Heavyweight Champ U.S.-Bound

FRANKFURT (AP)—Germany's heavyweight boxing champion, Hein Ten Hoff, left for the United States Sunday in quest of gold and glory.

Ten Hoff is under a six-month contract with Lew Burston of New York's Twentieth Century Club with a promise of a longer stay if he shows up well against American boxers.

The 29-year-old 203-pound German never has lost a fight. As an amateur he won 149 encounters. As a professional he won 14 bouts by knockouts, two by decisions and fought one draw. He won the German title from Walter Neusel in 1946.

Ray Tran Joins Vancouver Caps

VANCOUVER (CP)—The outright purchase of shortstop William Ray Tran from Tacoma Tigers was announced Saturday by Bob Brown, general manager of the Vancouver Capilanos of the Western International Baseball League.

The new chattel is a brother of Cap's present third baseman —Len Tran.

With Tran in the line-up, the Caps now have the top fielding shortstop in the W.I.L. last year. A better than average hitter, he clubbed .310 with Tigers last season.

Philadelphians Pay $250,000 For Eagles

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A syndicate of 100 Philadelphia businessmen bought Philadelphia Eagles for $250,000 Saturday to "bring local pro football back to the community."

The National Professional Football League champions have been owned for eight years by Alexis Thompson, New York millionaire. Thompson said he sold the Philadelphia franchise because he found it a losing proposition even with a title-winning team.

150 MISSIONS—AND 14 PAIR—Capt. Harry C. Newsome of Leesville, La., has 150 airlift missions to Berlin chalked up. While he waits for his cargo—it's coal this trp—to be unloaded at Gatow Airport, Berlin, Capt. Newsome sticks to his knitting. He's working on his 14th pair of Argyle plaid socks, and has also made many sweaters and scarves.

Comedian Directs Capitol Picture

Richard Haydn, the comedian, is now Haydn, the director, and directing is serious business even though it's directing a hilarious comedy like "Miss Tatlock's Millions," now appearing at the Capitol Theatre. The film co-stars John Lund, Wanda Hendrix, Barry Fitzgerald and Monty Woolley.

It was a golden opportunity for him when Charles Brackett, producer of those recent hits, "The Emperor Waltz" and "A Foreign Affair," assigned him to direct this top-budget film and he was not one to take it lightly.

During rehearsals, Haydn put on a one-man show of impersonations to illustrate more effectively his direction desires. The result is one of the funniest films of many a year.

DOMINION THEATRE

An exciting struggle between a bandit gang and a law officer in Oklahoma Territory is developed in "Return of the Bad Men," RKO Radio's newest dramatic thriller now being shown at the Dominion Theatre.

Randolph Scott portrays a U.S. Marshal, and co-starring with him are Robert Ryan as an outlaw, Anne Jeffreys as a bandit queen, George "Gabby" Hayes as a frontier banker and Jacqueline White as the banker's daughter.

Many of the famous desperadoes of the old southwest, including the Daltons and the Youngers, Billy the Kid, Bill Doolin and Wild Bill Yeager, are enacted in the offering, which is largely based on actual events of the period.

ROYAL THEATRE

Greer Garson—with an assist from the scriptwriter — may change the wedding habits of the nation.

In "Julia Misbehaves," now at the Royal Theatre, she argues with Walter Pidgeon over the dresses worn by bridesmaids. Cyclamen pink, the shade worn, is unlucky, she says.

As the heroine of the comedy, Miss Garson declares that the only time she wore cyclamen pink, she cut her finger, lost her purse, insulted an ambassador, quarreled with her best friend, and was fired from her job.

ODEON THEATRE

If Prosper Merimee were alive today, he would probably be a high-priced Hollywood writer; for the story of "Carmen," which he authored, is natural material for the screen.

Columbia Pictures is the latest of the coast studios to use it as the basis for a movie and it calls its film "The Loves of Carmen," a Technicolor drama starring Rita Hayworth and Glenn Ford now at the Odeon Theatre.

Sea Snakes And Sharks Invade Brisbane River

BRISBANE, Australia (CP)—School children are being denied their usual swimming in the Brisbane River.

Deady sea snakes and sharks have invaded the river as a result of the Queensland drought. The drought has lowered the pressure of fresh water, thus allowing the salt water to force its way farther upstream.

Sea snakes and sharks, both salt water inhabitants, have been caught as far as 30 miles inland from Brisbane.

Water police have warned children to stay out of the river until floods wash the snakes out.

CANADIAN SWIM MARK

MONTREAL (AP) — Adin Merrow of McGill University set a Canadian record of 1.02.1 in the 100-yards back stroke here Saturday when McGill outpointed University of Connecticut, 36 to 32 in a swimming meet. Previous record was 1.03.3.

CATARRH and SINUS trouble ... Splendid Results from treatment

Sufferers from the distressing symptoms and wretched discomforts of Catarrh, Sinus and Antrum troubles may now win real relief as thousands of others have done—thanks to Lantigen "B". Letter after letter received in the offices of Lantigen Laboratories Limited tell of the splendid results obtained from the Lantigen "B" treatment. Lantigen "B" is the modern oral way of obtaining relief from Catarrh and Sinus (including Antrum) infections, also common types of Bronchial Asthma and Bronchitis. As many sufferers know, catarrh and sinusitis are due to a bacterial infection of the air passages of the head. This may extend down the trachea ("windpipe") to the bronchial tubes and may cause Bronchial Asthma and Bronchitis. To raise the defenses of the body against this bacterial infection a special dissolved vaccine for oral administration — Lantigen "B" — was prepared. Lantigen "B" is taken by mouth. Full directions, including reduced dosages for children, are given with every bottle and when taken as directed Lantigen "B" will help to bring welcome relief from the discomforts of Catarrh, Sinusitis and common types of Bronchial Asthma and Bronchitis. Sufferers from these complaints should also take care to secure adequate rest; maintain proper eating habits, avoid constipation, wet feet and chills. History's Fanciest Inaugural Planned For Truman Thursday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harry S. Truman's inaugural as President next Thursday may turn out to be history's fanciest.

Those in charge of the sideline festivities promise more of almost everything. And better, too.

When Franklin D. Roosevelt took the oath as President for the fourth time Jan. 20, 1945, there was no fanfare. The United States then was fighting its greatest war and Roosevelt was sworn in quietly at the White House.

Less than three months later — April 12 — Truman became President. But there was no celebration then. The country was mourning the death of Roosevelt.

This time it will be different. Truman has been elected in his own right.

The inaugural itself will follow the usual pattern—a solemn ceremony on the Capitol grounds. A congressional committee is in charge of arrangements for this, the official phase.

This part will cost the taxpayers about $100,000. The committee is spending that much to build a platform and about 14,000 wooden seats for invited guests.

The formal ceremony will begin at noon when Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson administers the oath of office to Truman. Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky will be sworn in as Vice-President. Truman will give the customary inaugural address.

But the trimmings, before and after, probably are the most extensive ever planned.

COMMITTEE BUSY

An inaugural committee, financed by Washington businessmen, is running the rest of the show. Truman will ride in his own inaugural parade, the first time a President has done this in many years.

Ordinarily, the President, after taking the oath of office, returns to the White House for lunch and rest. Then he goes to a reviewing stand for the parade.

An "inaugural gala" will be held at the National Guard Armory inaugural eve. President and Mrs. Truman and their daughter, Margaret, will be on hand and the price of tickets depends on the nearness to them. Tickets for the "Presidential Circle" are priced at $10.

The DOCTOR Says:

PROPER BALANCE OF C LCIUM IS ESSENTIAL TO BODY HEALTH

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

Calcium is one of the most important elements of the body. Chemical combinations of calcium are particularly needed by the teeth and bones, but calcium is required also in other parts of the body. Calcium salts play an important part in the clotting o the blood and in the control of the heart beat.

Calcium taken into the body must be in a form which can be easily absorbed and used. Vitamin D helps in the use of calcium by the body and this is gained from sunlight or it can be obtained in prepared form. A hormone produced by one of the internal glands called the parathyroid is also important. When vitamin D is not present in sufficient quantities, the calcium is not deposited properly and the bones become soft and pliable, producing rickets, bow legs, etc. If the parathyroid glands are removed, the amount of calcium in the blood drops rapidly, regardless of the amount of calcium taken in. This causes a condition called tetany which produces muscular spasms.

TOO MUCH IS HARMFUL

Too much calcium can be present in the tissues as well as too little. For example, a good deal of the material deposited in the walls of hardened arteries (arteriosclerosis) consists of calcium. As yet, no way has been found to dissolve or remove excess calcium in the arteries nor is there any method of preventing these deposits.

Dairy products supply good quantities of calcium. Consequently infants and growing children, who need calcium for their rapidly growing bones, get most of their calcium from milk. Additional calcium can be supplied in various tablet or capsule forms. However, although calcium tablets may supply the calcium needed, they will not furnish the other nutritional elements present in such excellent foods as milk and cheese.

Question: Could continued use of mineral oil cause pain in the abdomen?

Answer: Yes. Mineral oil frequently causes waste matter to pass through the intestines too rapidly. It may delay absorption of certain vitamins. If it stimulates the intestines to excessive wave-like motions, crampy pains may appear.

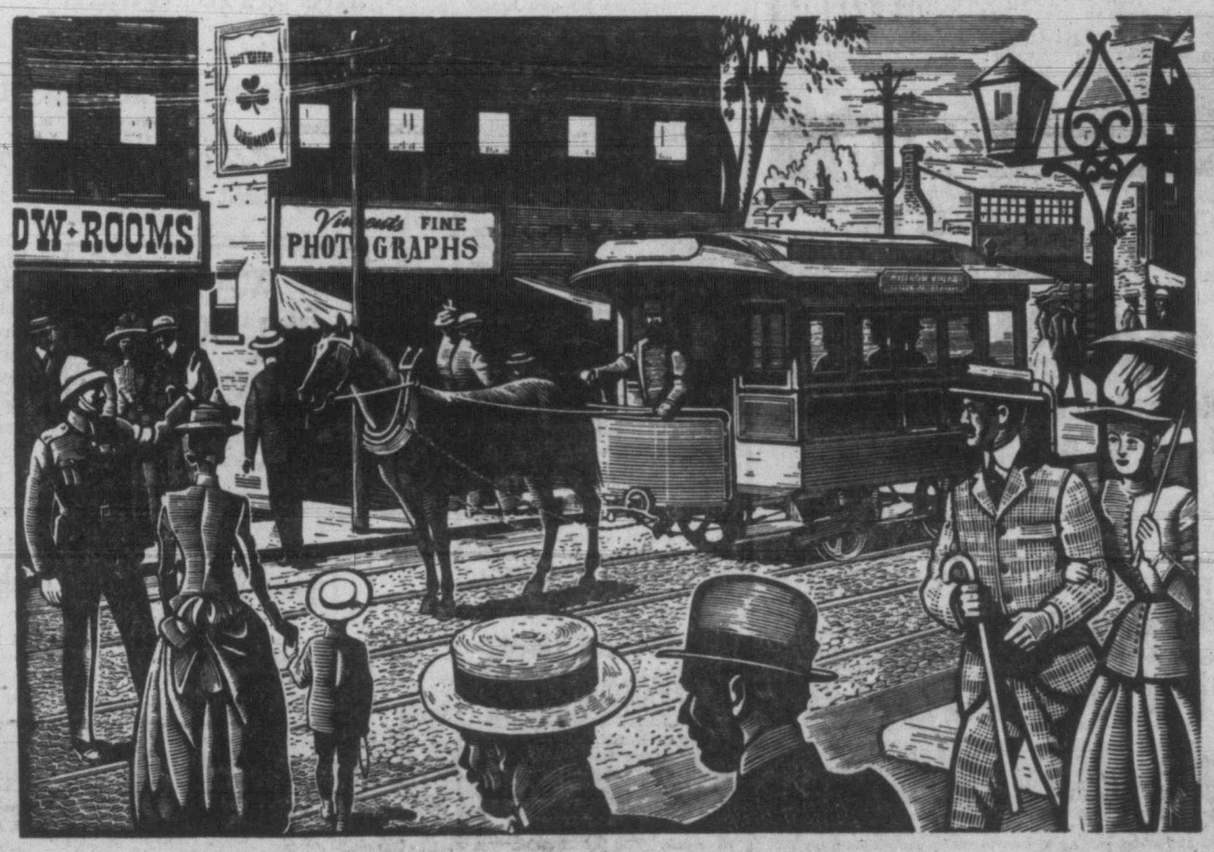
60 YEARS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

1889 — 1949

This is the type of street car used in 1889. It ran on iron rails spiked to long timbers. Today street cars are bigger, faster, safer, more comfortable. Nickel has helped to make them so. Their frames, springs and many mechanical parts are made of nickel alloy steels to provide toughness, long life, and great strength with light weight.



How Nickel Benefits Canada

Since more than ninety per cent of the Nickel produced in Canada is sold to the United States and other countries, it brings a constant flow of dollars back to Canada. In fact, Canada's Nickel industry is one of our chief sources of U.S. dollars so essential at the present time to maintain our foreign trade and make available products not produced in this country.

These dollars help pay the wages of the 14,000 Nickel employees, and help provide the dollars which make it possible to pay millions in freight to Canadian railways, to buy timber, steel, coal, machinery and supplies amounting to many millions each year.

These millions, flowing into all industries through the length and breadth of Canada, help create jobs for Canadians.

Lloyd George Might Have Approved Mrs. Simpson

LONDON (Reuter)—If the sensational events which led to the 1936 abdication of King Edward VIII had moved less swiftly, two of Britain's greatest statesmen might have thrown their joint influence into the scales in favor of a morganatic marriage between Mrs. Wallis Simpson and the then king.

One of those men was David Lloyd George, later Earl Lloyd George, Prime Minister during the first World War. The other was Winston Churchill, Prime Minister during the Second World War.

These facts are revealed in Malcolm Thomson's official biography of David George, written in collaboration with the widow of the former Prime Minister and just published here by Messrs. Hutchinson and Company Ltd.

HOLIDAYED IN JAMAICA

At the time when the King Edward-Mrs. Simpson affair reached a climax, Lloyd George—then an "elder statesman" out of office—was on holiday in Jamaica.

Thomson says that while Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin was pressing for the King's abdication, Churchill did his best to obtain a postponement of the decision in the hope that some other solution might be found.

"Away in Jamaica, Lloyd George was profoundly distressed as news of the swiftly unfolding tragedy came through to him," writes Thomson.

"He agreed that Mrs. Simpson could not become Queen, but . . . would have been willing to allow a morganatic marriage, by which she would be the King's wife but not his Queen.

"From his temporary exile, he sent messages asserting the King's right to choose his wife, and made preparation to dash back to England to join Churchill in trying to avert an irrvocablle step. . . ."

"But Baldwin struck swiftly. He did not allow any debate in the House (of Commons.) Taking the matter into his own hands, he compelled the King, on Dec. 10, to sign an act of abdication naming his brother, George, Duke of York, as his successor.

"In view of the line he had taken, Lloyd George was rather dubious as to what his reception at court would be when he attended the coronation celebrations. But he was received most cordially by their Majesties and was instantly and completely captivated by the charm of the Queen."

This was not the only occasion on which the "Welsh Wizard" proved unorthodox in his attitude to royalty.

'FIRM REPRIMAND'

Thomson recalls an occasion when King Edward VII, father of George V and grandfather of Edward VIII, administered a "firm and dignified reprimand" to Lloyd George.

Born the son of a schoolmaster and brought up in a cottage in a North Wales village, Lloyd George became a solicitor when he left school, a member of parliament in 1890, a cabinet minister in 1905 and Prime Minister in 1916.

After the armistice, he was hailed as "the man who won the war" as was Churchill after the Second World War. But, also like his famous successor, he was later turned out of office—in 1922.

Lloyd George's widow stresses that her husband's only real friendship after he came to high office was that with Churchill.

"I think Mr. Churchill was the only one of L.G.'s friends who called him 'David.'" she states. "From the earliest political days these two were strangely and prophetically drawn together. Each divined in the other the quality of genius which separated them from the ordinary run of men and drew them together—the village boy and the Duke's grandson."

No One Hurt But Damage To Cars $1,000

No persons were injured, but damage to the two cars which collided at the Belmont Avenue and Begbie Street intersection at 6 Saturday evening was estimated at $1,000 by city police.

Officers said the cars were driven by Mrs. Ora Mae Hayhoe, 2965 Foul Bay Road, going east on Begbie, and William Blackstock, 3576 Richmond Road, proceeding north on Belmont. The Hayhoe car damage was estimated at $800. There were three passengers in the Blackstock car, Mrs. R. Newton of 59 Cook Street, Ralph Warren of Portland and D. Dearden of New Westminster.

The first transcontinental railroad was completed in 1869 when the Union Pacific and Central Pacific rail lines joined at Ogden, Utah.

Senate May Study Supply Of Oils For Margarine

OTTAWA (CP)—The Senate may undertake at the new session of parliament a detailed study of importance if margarine is to become a widely-sold commodity in Canada.

It is a probe of the vegetable oils and fats situation in the country. Since the oils are the leading component of margarine, their importance is obvious.

Senator Wishart Robertson, government leader in the chamber, gave notice towards the close of the last session that he would move at this session for the study.

He argued at that time that the supply of the oils was so small that the question of allowing the production of margarine was largely academic.

Since the issue was a live one then—the government had not yet referred the federal ban to the Supreme Court—he met opposition from within his own ranks. However, he is expected to try to go ahead with the motion this session.

Arrest 24 In Raid On Former Church

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—Police arrested 24 persons early Sunday in a gambling raid at the former First Presbyterian Church building.

One, who identified himself as a "clerk," was charged with maintaining the establishment for gambling purposes.

The other 23 were charged with frequenting a gambling establishment. Only one gave a local address. Sixteen said they were from Buffalo and six from across the Canadian border.

Give Bronze Statue To Hongkong Corps

HONGKONG (Reuter) — The Winnipeg Grenadiers, who fought alongside the Hongkong Volunteer Corps to defend the city against the Japanese in December, 1941, presented the volunteers with a bronze statue at the week-end. The presentation was made by Kenneth Noble, Canadian trade commissioner here.

The statue—or plaque—is a marble slab surmounted by two standing buffaloes and a gold maple leaf. It carries a silver plate with the following inscription:

"Lt.-Col. H. C. Maxwell (commanding officer) and the officers of the Winnipeg Grenadiers hope that the commanding officer and officers of the Hongkong Defence Corps will consider themselves permanent honorary members of their mess."

A sterling silver plaque in a Chinese blackwood frame, similarly inscribed, was received last year by the Grenadiers from the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps. Members of the corps participated in the defence of Hongkong beside members of the Grenadiers and the Royal Rifles of Quebec.

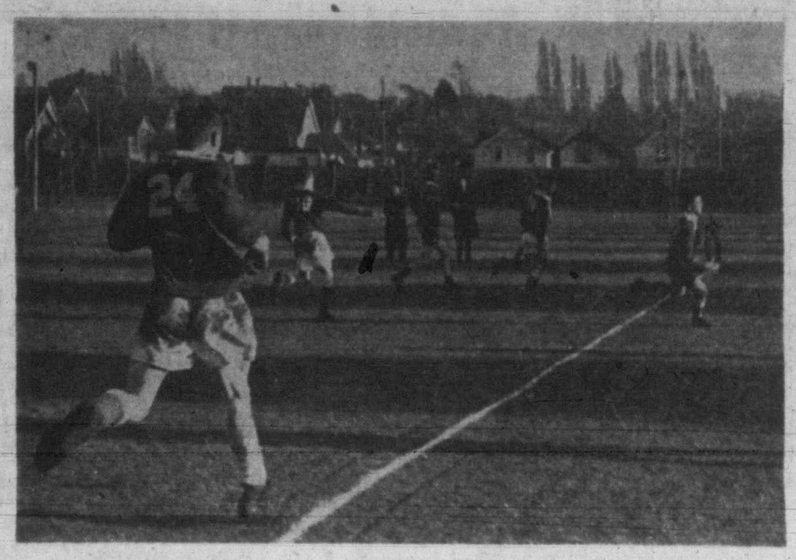
Thunderbirds Rout Crimson Tide



Stan Clarke, centre three-quarter of the Varsity Thunderbirds, crosses the Victoria line unmolested in the first half of Saturday's McKechnie Cup rugger match at Macdonald Park. Cece Smith (24), John Campbell (18) and John Hicks (20) are Victoria players. Hilliary Wotherspoon, Varsity winger, is between Campbell and Hicks.

McKechnie Cup hopes of Victoria's Crimson Tide rugby squad were ground into the frozen turf of Macdonald Park Saturday afternoon, before 1,500 fans, as Varsity Thunderbirds displaying tremendous offensive power whipped a game but outclassed local fifteen, 22 to 0.

It was the first game of the trophy series for the defending champion Varsity team and the result left no doubt in the minds of Victoria fans that the Students will hold onto the coveted bauble for yet another year.

Rated on a par with last year's World Cup winners, Varsity was slow to start rolling against Campbell Forbes' Rep unit and for better than 38 minutes of the first half the locals stymied every effort of the mainland fifteen to score.

However, with but two minutes to go in the first half, the students hit the scoring column with Stan Clarke slicing through the Victoria defence to plant the ball right behind the uprights. Hillary Wotherspoon converted to put Varsity in a 5 to 0 half-time lead.

TIDE WILTS

It was an entirely different story in the second half as Varsity thundered through the Victoria defence at will to rack up four tries, one of which was converted, and a penalty goal.

Forcing the pressure right from the start of the second half, Varsity was awarded a penalty at the 25-yard line for a Victoria offside. Wotherspoon missed on the attempt but on the Victoria clearance another penalty was called against the locals and this time Wotherspoon made no mistake from a difficult angle.

At about the 15-minute mark of the second half Wotherspoon increased the lead to 11 to 0 when he rambled 20 yards to score near the line.

STUDENTS RAMBLE

From then on it was just a question as to what the final score would be as Varsity's famed three-line put on a brilliant display of running and passing to sift through the weakening local defence with ease.

Wing three-quarter Jack Armour counted the students third try on a movement started by Russ Latham. Eric Cardinall dribbled a loose ball over for the fourth score which Wotherspoon converted and fullback Bill Dunbar completed the rout by cutting through the middle from 10 yards out on a criss-cross play.

The Varsity scrum bested Victoria's forward wall in the set scrums. On occasions when the locals did get possession the aggressive Students bottled up the local running attack with sound defensive play.

KICKING POOR

The Tide, unable to go anywhere on the ground against the speedy Point Grey squad, came up with one of the weakest exhibitions of kicking exhibited by a local rep team in some time. Seldom did Tide kicks find touch especially in the first half and gains from this method of attack were negligible.

John Hicks put Victoria within scoring distance twice in the second half on short kicks to touch following three-quarter movements but on each occasion Varsity relieved the pressure on succeeding plays.

Bob Dunlop's attempted try for a penalty was wide and short on the one real chance Tide had to score.

In a preliminary game on the lower field a Varsity frosh team—in name only—defeated Victoria College, 11 to 3.

Canadiens Stage Sit-Down Conference

Hold Up Game 10 Minutes In Protest; Detroit, Rangers, Boston Win

The high-flying Detroit Red Wings emerged from the week-end National Hockey League battling with their five-point lead intact and emphasized they will be hard to overtake in the last part of the campaign.

At the same time, Montreal Canadiens moved up to take over third place, their highest position in the standing since the opening week of the season, while the last-place New York Rangers remained in contention for the fourth and last playoff spot by earning a split in their home-and-home series with the hot-and-cold Toronto Maple Leafs.

Detroit cooled off Canadiens by squeezing out a 3 to 2 triumph at home Sunday night after the Habitants sunk the faltering Chicago Black Hawks 7 to 1 in the Canadian city Saturday. Toronto edged New York 2 to 1 at home Saturday, but at New York Sunday night the Rangers blanked the Leafs 4 to 0 with Chuck Rayner registering his fourth shutout.

On the only other week-end contest, Boston Bruins consolidated their hold on second place by whipping Chicago 3 to 1 at Beantown.

REARDON BLOWS AGAIN

Belligerent Kenny Reardon, Montreal's rushing rearguard, was in thick of another mix-up at Detroit Sunday night, only two weeks after his wild stick-swinging duel with Cal Gardner of Toronto which earned each player a fine and one-game suspension.

Reardon clashed with wing goalie Harry Lumley near the Detroit goal crease and the net-minder slugged Reardon four times with left hooks before the players were pulled apart.

When Referee Jim Primeau failed to tag Lumley with a penalty, the whole Canadien team staged a sit-down conference in front of their bench and held up the game for 10 minutes. All this got the Habs was a two-minute penalty for refusing to start play. They finished the last three minutes of the game, but needed some persuasion to do it.

Toronto	12	15	8	86	98	32
N. York	11	15	8	75	89	30

In the game itself, Leo Deise, Jim Enio and Bill Quackenbush scored for the Wings while Kenny Mosdell and Roger Leger were the Habitant marksmen.

Goalie Jim Henry had an off night Saturday as Montreal walloped their Chicago "cousins" 7 to 1 Saturday. The last time the clubs met, Montreal racked up a 7 to 2 victory.

RICHARD BRILLIANT

Maurice (Rocket) Richard topped off a sensational performance by racking up the 200th goal of his N.H.L. career in the third session. It was the Rocket's third marker of the game. Bill Reay scored two for Canadiens while Tod Campeau and Gerry Plamondon garnered one apiece. The lone Chicago counter went to Roy Conacher.

The Black Hawks moved over to Boston Sunday night and absorbed another defeat, 3 to 1, at the hands of the Bruins.

Grant Warwick's 18th goal proved to be the winner. Before that, Pete Babando had scored for the homesters and Doug Bentley for Chicago. Pat Egan put the issue beyond doubt with another Boston tally with only 19 seconds of the game left.

Rookie Tod Sloan made his first N.H.L. goal an important one Saturday when he broke a 1 to 1 deadlock and sent the Leafs on to victory over New York. Defenceman Frankie Eddolls gave Rangers an early lead and then Bill Barilko tied it up for Toronto.

The New Yorkers shutout triumph against the Leafs Sunday night left them two points back of the fifth-place Toronto club.

Edgar Laprade, Alex Kaleta, Fred Shero and Dunc Fisher were the Ranger marksmen.

United At Home To Royals In Saturday's Soccer Tilt

Victoria United will play New Westminster Royals at Athletic Park Saturday at 2.15, it was announced today by Ed McKenzie, secretary of the United.

The game has been switched to Victoria from New Westminster because of poor playing condition of mainland parks resulting from heavy frost of the last few weeks.

The change in schedule was made possible through the courtesy of the Victoria and District League in giving up Athletic Park to the Coast League for the game.

Oak Bay In Soccer Victory Over Wests

Oak Bay remained in the thick of the fight for second half honors in the first division of the Victoria Foobtall League Sunday, by hanging a 5 to 2 defeat on the Victoria West. Bays held a 2 to 0 edge at halftime and dominated play in the final 45 minutes after Wests had rallied briefly for two quick counters.

Unlike the previous week-end when they were beaten by Esquimalt in a cup game, Oak Bay showed lots of scoring punch, with wingers Stan Wiseman and Elmer Hodder each firing a pair of goals past goalie Kidd of the greenshirts.

After 30 minutes of scoreless play Don Robinson put Oak Bay in front when his whistling first-timer, following a corner kick, struck the upright and deflected into the opposite corner of the net. Just before halftime Wiseman took a long pass on the right wing, broke in the clear and cut in fast to score easily.

Second half had barely started when Hodder took a perfect cross from Wiseman and flicked the ball into the corner. Down 3 to 0 the Wests put on the pressure and closed the gap by two goals, outside left Billy Allan blasting home a first-timer from Doug Gent's cross and Gent contributing the second during a goal-mouth scramble.

Oak Bay settled down again and, enjoying most of the play, Wiseman and Hodder punched home their second goals. Wests faded badly in the final 20 minutes.

Semifinal Playoffs Set For Senior Cagers

The senior A men's basketball schedule came to a close Saturday night at the High School gym with a pair of games that meant little to four league squads, except to set pairings for the best-of-three semifinal playoff series that begin next Saturday.

Y.M.C.A., beaten only once in league play this season, grabbed an early lead and then hung on to edge K.V.'s, 46 to 43, in the feature game, while Pro Pats nipped Eagles, 52 to 50, in overtime, to gain third place in the final standings.

Pro Pats will now meet Y.M.C.A. in one best-of-three semifinal bracket and KV.'s will meet Eagles starting on Saturday night in the other best-of-three semifinal.

Playing without the services of coach Reg Clarkson, the "Y" found little trouble in penetrating K.V.'s defence in the early stages of the game and took an 18 to 9 lead at the end of the first quarter. Paced by Johnny Clark, the league's leading scorer, the association squad increased this lead to 28 to 17 at the half.

CLOSE GAP

K.V.'s found the going a little easier in the second half and slowly but surely cut into the "Y" lead but the margin was too much to overcome and the final whistle still found Harold Turner's squad trailing by three points.

The Pro Pat-Eagles game was close all the way with the Vets getting the jump in the overtime session to gain an even break with the birdmen on the season's play, each team winding up with two victories and two defeats.

Half-time score was 21 to 21 and the regulation time ended with the score knotted at 47 to 47.

OVERTIME VICTORY

Jim Ireland, who finally seems to have found his shooting eye, popped in a basket to put the Vets in front in overtime, and Ernie Fox dropped in another to cinch the verdict. Don Hall's free throw accounted for the Vets' final point. Eagles' points in overtime came from the free-throw lane with Bob Long converting a pair and Bernie Anderson one.

Fox with 14 points and Ireland with 13, paced Pro Pats' attack while Long was best of Eagles with 11.

Clark's 19 points in the feature game took scoring honors and gave the lanky bucket ace of the "Y" the individual scoring title for the season. Fred Ranson got 12 points to pace the K.V.'s.

TILLICUMS LEAD

In a preliminary game Tillicums defeated Esquimalt A.A., 32 to 24, to take an eight-point lead in the two-game, total-point series for the junior boys' championship of the city.

Teams and scorers follow:

Pro Patria—Booth 10, Ellis 2, McKeachie, Ireland 13 Creed 4, Fox 14, L. Hall 4, D. Hall 5

Eagles—Browning 9, McCorkell 8, Anderson 8, Long 11, McMillan 8, Taylor 5.

Y.M.C.A.—Clark 19, Dale, Wright 5, V. Clarkson 8, Jackson 8, Baxter 6, Goldsmith, Lee, Chungranes.

K.V.'s—McCaghey 10, Curtiss 7, Anderson 7, Castner 5, Prior, Watson 2, Reed, Ranson 12.

Tillicums—Greigg 3, Shields, Hampton 6, Hodges 8, Tripp 2, Davies 7, Stewart 2, Bray 4, Chow.

NANAIMO (CP) — Nanaimo Clippers Saturday night nosed past an aggressive U.B.C. Thunderbird sextette 5 to 4 in a Pacific Coast Senior B Hockey League fixture here.

Sudbury Club Worried Over Tergeson's Status

WINNIPEG (CP)—Coach Max Silverman will get two or three reinforcements of the "highest calibre" for his Sudbury Wolves, Canada's representatives at the world hockey championships at Stockholm in February, but he may lose the services of defenceman Joey Tergeson of Gimli, Man., now under suspension by Eddie Shore.

Delegates to the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association's three-day semi-annual meeting which wound up here yesterday, approved their officers' decision to reinforce the Wolves as requested by Silverman.

There is a possibility "through a misunderstanding," Tergeson may not have been cleared of a suspension before he left for the overseas trip.

C.A.H.A. officials said it was their understanding that Tergeson, placed under suspension by Shore for failing to report to training camp while under option, had been cleared by Shore before leaving Canada. The matter, they said, had been "left in Silverman's hands . . . and we understood everything was straightened out satisfactorily."

Since Tergeson's departure, the C.A.H.A. was informed that Shore had not cleared the player. Meanwhile, President Al Pickard of Regina was directed by C.A.H.A. delegates to approach Clarence Campbell, president of the N.H.L., to clear up the matter "one way or the other."

The meeting felt that "considerable expense" had been gone to in sending Tergeson to the continent, and as the situation was "not clear," the C.A.H.A. should investigate the possibility of a "misunderstanding."

OPTION TRANSFERRED

Jimmy Dunn, president of the Manitoba A.H.A., said Tergeson had reported no knowledge of his belonging to Shore's chain of minor league teams, but had only signed an option form with Minneapolis. Further reports showed Minneapolis had transferred the option to Share's Fort Worth club of the U.S.H.L.

1. In other business during the week-end, the association set June 2-6 as the dates for the annual meeting in New York.

2. Deleted a by-law from the constitution which said "no officer shall serve more than two consecutive terms as president."

3. Said juvenile players who sit out one year of organized hockey become free agents the following year.

In session Saturday, the meeting turned down the Pacific Coast Hockey League's request to forego this year's $10,000 payment for amateurs turning professional in its league.

Heavy Pre-season Baseball Schedule

CHICAGO (AP)—A spring exhibition schedule of 241 games, including 132 meetings with National League clubs, has been arranged by baseball teams of the American League.

The "grapefruit" skirmishing begins 12 days after the March 1 opening of spring practice in the California, Arizona and Florida training bases.

The Amercan League also lists 28 intra-league games and 77 engagements with minor league clubs. The only team scheduled to make a foreign trip will be Philadelphia Athletics, who will go to Havana for three games.

Tacoma Rockets End Portland's Victory Streak

The Portland Eagles' upsurge in the Pacific Coast Hockey League got them nine straight wins but the streak failed to lift them to the top of the northern division.

Tacoma's Rockets broke the charm last night with a 2 to 1 win at Portland. Idle New Westminster retains the division lead. The win boosted Tacoma into a third-place tie with Vancouver behind Portland.

Both Rocket goals came in the first period, when the Eagles were shorthanded with a man in the penalty box. Tacoma goalie Doug Stevenson made 23 saves.

At Seattle, the Ironmen hung a 6 to 1 defeat on the invading San Diego Skyhawks. Seattle is in the cellar berth in the northern division. San Diego is the second-place club in the southern section.

The Skyhawks defence fell apart, two men being sidelined by injuries. Sharp goal tending by Larry Frechette, who blocked 40 shots at the net, saved San Diego from a more humiliating loss.

A goal by wingman Andy Barbe with only six seconds left in the game gave the Los Angeles Monarchs a 3 to 2 win over the Fresno Falcons on the Monarch's home ice.

AUTO RACE WINNER

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Oscar Galvez won Argentina's 1,000-mile automobile race Sunday in 12 hours 35 minutes 24 seconds.

Three persons were killed and eight injured when speeding cars hit spectators lining roads over which the race was run in Buenos Aires province.

Jeanne Mathews, Roger Wickson Win Western Ice Crowns

TRAIL (CP)—Lovely Jeanne Mathews skimmed effortlessly over this smelter city's ice arena Saturday night to triumph for the second successive year in the western Canada figure skating championships.

The slender 19-year-old miss from Vancouver, who is expected to take the Dominion final in Ottawa next month, spiralled to victory in the senior women's competition. She placed second last year behind Barbara Ann Scott in the Canadian final.

Miss Mathews, however, paid tribute to her runner-up, petite 11-year-old Sonja Currie of Edmonton who showed outstanding promise. Francis Abbott of Winnipeg was third.

Roger Wickson of Vancouver retained his senior men's title as he skated unopposed before the crowd of 1,000. He too, is favored to triumph next month in the Dominion finals.

Dave Spauling and Pearl Simmers of Vancouver, won the senior mixed pairs.

In the women's pairs, Jean and Joan Dewitt, Regina twins, took the title for the third successive year.

Regina Caps Hand Stampeders Shutout

CALGARY (CP)—Regina Capitals handed Calgary Stampeders a lesson in back-checking Saturday night to skate to an easy 2 to 0 victory and regain first place in the Western Canada Senior Hockey League.

Capitals scored a goal in the opening period and again the second for their victory margin.

It was goalie Bert Bentley's fifth shutout of the season and his first against Calgary.

51-Year-Old Borotra Beaten In Net Final

PARIS (Reuter)—Jacques Thomas, 26-year-old French player Sunday beat his compatriot, Jean Borotra, who is 51, in the final of men's singles in the international winter lawn tennis tournament of the Racing Club de France. The scores were 6-4, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5.

Madame Nelly Landry of France won the women's title.

Manitoba's Hume Captures Cars In Nipawin Bonspiel

NIPAWIN, Sask. (CP)—The 2,400 inhabitants of this northern Saskatchewan town settled back to their customary routine today after a week in which they enjoyed Nipawin's status as the virtual curling capital of Canada.

Nipawin—originator of the automobile bonspiel—now has run off its third such competition with the laurels for 1949 going to a rink from Flin Flon, Man., skipped by Pete Hume. Hume had a further distinction in that his path to the cars had been blocked by an array of former Canadian titleholders.

Hume joined Howard Wood and Grant Watson, both of Winpineg, as winner of the noted Nipawin 'spiel with a victory over Willard Cleveland of Fairlight, Sask. They met in a best-of-three playoff with Hume taking the final match 9 to 8 Saturday night after two games had been split.

Immediately after the Saturday night match, Hume and the three other players on his rink received orders for spring-delivery of 1949 cars. Members of the losing rink each received a $100 wrist watch.

Hume, who took the opening game 8 to 7 Friday night and then lost 11 to 6 in the second game Saturday afternoon, had to come from behind to capture the all-important third contest. He was behind 5 to 3 after five ends.

Turn of the game came in the ninth end when Don Sauter, skipping the Cleveland quartette, and Cleveland himself both missed shots. Hume came through for a two-score and the lead, and never relinquished it.

McKenley Beaten By Aussie Youngster

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Edwin Carr, 20-year-old medical student, defeated Herb McKenley of Jamaica by a yard Saturday in an international 440-yard foot race that was clocked in 48 seconds.

McKenley, former University of Illinois athlete, arrived Friday for a tour of this continent.

The 100-yard dash was won by Lloyd La Beach, another Jamaican. He won his preliminary in .09.7 and then defeated John Bartram, Australian Olympic sprinter, by inches in the .09.8 final.

K.V.'s-Brentwood In Senior B Hoop Clash

Three games are on tonight's basketball card at the High School gym with the feature at 9 pitting Brentwood Aces against K.V.'s in a game that will decide first place in the men's senior B league.

The middle game on the program finds the intermediate A league title at stake with Eaton's playing Victoria College.

In the preliminary at 7 Chinese Students tangle with K.V.'s in an intermediate B boys' game.

Wrestlers Panic Fans In Tag-Team Scramble

It is doubtful if a single wrestling fan walked out of the Armories Saturday night without a pain suffered from laughing. Four athletes appearing in the tag-team match, feature of promoter Rocky Brooks' first card of the New Year, put on an act that beat any comedy that might have been the brain child of a Hollywood producer.

Participants were Maurice LaChappelle and Herb Parks in one corner against Chico Garcia and Stocky Neilson in the other. Garcia and Neilson proved perfectly matched. The latter, boasting a first-class entry for the Eagles' beard-growing competition, certainly missed his calling when he failed to don the paint as a circus clown. He had the fans rolling in their seats with Garcia a perfect foil.

Also contributing a major share to the proceedings was the cold-blooded LaChappelle. Adopting a poker-faced role the husky Frenchmen showed his opponents a few tricks with his feet much to the delight of the fans. Parks, a Vancouver product, recently returned from Australia, took the first fall by pinning Neilson following a series of elbow butts and flying mares. Garcia gained the tying fall with a body press on LaChappelle.

ALL FOUR IN RING

The winning fall was a panic: Neilson wound up on the mat with Garcia, LaChappelle and Parks on top of him. Previously all four had entered the ring as the crowd roared it approval.

In the opening bout husky Bob Cummings took two out of three falls from Cal Roberts. The pair substituted for Frank Stojack, out with an injured shoulder and Bob DeMarce, ill with the 'flu.

An added attraction was a three-round exhibition boxing bout between Lloyd Tahouney and Doug Bambrough, two youngsters who will participate in the Victoria Times Golden Gloves boxing championships at the Armories Feb. 4 and 5.

Late Goals Decide Roller Hockey Tilts

James Bay and Oak Bay squeaked out narrow 2 to 1 victories in Sunday's roller hockey games at Stevenson Memorial Park with both tilts being decided in the final minute of play.

Gordie Ball counted the winning marker for James Bay over Civil Service with only five seconds left in the game, while the Oak Bay-Foul Bay was decided by Glen Murdoch's marker 20 seconds from time.

A free-for-all with Norm and Bob Coates of Civil Service and Malcolm Preston of James Bay getting penalties featured the James Bay-Civil Service contest.

Bob Coates scored the Civil Service goal with Art Harris counting James Bay's first marker.

John Carlow notched Oak Bay's initial goal. Toad Garnet scored Foul Bay's lone tally.

Next week's games find Civil Service meeting Oak Bay at 1 and James Bay playing Foul Bay at 2.30.

Longden Brings Home 5 Winners; Set Down

ARCADIA, Calif. (CP)—Champion jockey Johnny Longden booted home five winners Saturday but he missed out in the big race when Shim Malone, a five-year-old California-bred longshot, won the $50,000 San Pasqual Handicap before 43,000 fans.

Shim Malone eased under the wire three-quarters of a length in front of On Trust, ridden by Longden. Bert Baroni's highly-regarded Autocrat, winner of the $50,000 San Carlos Handicap Jan. 1, was third.

It was the second Saturday stakes in succession that E. O. Stice and Sons' On Trust had missed. A week ago Saturday On Trust, ridden by Longden, lost a head decision to Stepfather in the $50,000 Santa Catalina Handicap.

Jockey Ralph Neves brought Shim Malone in over a muddy Santa Anita track in 1.45 3-5 for the 1 1-16 mile route.

Shim Malone, never beaten on a muddy track, paid $26.60, $9.80 and $5.70; On Trust $5.20 and $3.50, and Autocrat $3.80.

On Trust carried top weight of 124, Shim Malone 110.

Meanwhile Longden also received some bad news. Santa Antta track stewards grounded him for five days, effective Jan. 18, for bad riding. The veteran was set down for failing to keep a straight course on Papagos in the fifth race Friday.

Grealey Nets 4 Goals To Give Oak Bay Lead

With Frank Grealey netting four goals Oak Bay' intermediate soccer forces Saturday afternoon defeated the Saanich Indians, 6 to 3, to take over undisputed possession of first place in the intermediate loop.

Golds, who went into the game with Eagles tied with Oak Bay and Douglas Tire, were held to a scoreless draw by the birdmen and as a result dropped into second place. Idle Douglas Tire now hold down third spot, two points behind the leaders.

Indians, who have yet to win a game this season but who last week managed a tie for their first point of the season, twice took a two-goal lead against Oak Bay but couldn't held the edge.

Down 3 to 1 at the intermission, Oak Bay counted five goals in the second half with Grealey scoring the first three. Grealey alsso counted Oak Bay's first half marker.

Manny Cooper gave Indians a 1 to 0 lead on a penalty shot and Moses Sam counted two goals for the losers before halftime. Other Oak Bay scores were made by Glen Smith and Doug Betts.

There was little to choose from in the Golds-Eagles game with a muddy field making good football impossible.

Rickey Forecasts Great Season For Brooklyn Dodgers

BROOKLYN (AP) — Branch Rickey rates the 1949 Brooklyn club the best in his regime at Flatbush.

"I will be terribly disappointed," the Dodger president said, "if it doesn't give a good account of itself. I think we can win the pennant."

Rickey talked about his club at a press conference called to announce the 1949 spring exhibition schedule. It included 28 games for the regular Dodgers and a three-game side trip by a team to be known as the "Clyde Sukeforth squad."

"Jackie Robinson, I hope, will be in as good shape March 1 as he was last year on July 1," Rickey said, "that alone could account for our losing the pennant last season."

Rickey revealed that some 610 major and minor league players will be progressed at the Vero Beach, Fla., base during the spring period. Of course, all will not be there at the same time. He figures the peak will be about 375 men in late March.

Australian Fight Promoter Seeking Northwest Talent

VANCOUVER (CP)—Canadian boxing promoters today were warned to "keep their guards up" against possible "talent stealing" by an Australian sports tycoon.

Richard Lean, agent for John Wren, millionaire industrial and sports magnate, is here looking for main-event fighters.

His talent search has brought a blast from Al Principe, Vancouver promoter.

"It burns me up," said Principe in an interview. "I've been building up local talent for the last year or so and it's been costing me a lot of money.

"Just when I develop a few main eventers some guy comes along and tries to chisel in on the deal."

The general manager of Stadiums Ltd., Wren's $1,000,000 promotional empire, is reported to have his eye on Stan Almond, former North American amateur junior bantamweight champion and currently the best bantam on the west coast.

"My boys have given me assurance they won't desert me," Principe said. "This will be a test case to see if it pays to build up talent."

Lean arrived aboard the liner Aorangi Saturday and expects to return to Australia early in March.

He told of lucrative purses and bookings throughout Australia and New Zealand with "unlimited earnings."

Currency restrictions, however, puts a hitch in the deal. A fighter or wrestler may only take about $3,500 out of the two down-under dominions.

Heaney's Rally To Defeat Esquimalt

Esquimalt Meat Market handed Heaney's first division juvenile soccer leaders a scare Sunday afternoon before bowing out, 4 to 2, as the transfermen came form behind for victory.

Irwin LeBus with two goals and Tom Walker and Bruce Madeley with singletons, scored for Heaney's, with George Coldwell and Don Fulmer denting the twine for Esquimalt.

Fred Merriman and Jack Wright were outstanding for the losers, while Jack Robbins was the pick of the transfermen.

Veterans of France won by default from Jubilee Pharmacy in the other scheduled game.

In a second division contest, Greneks walloped Sea Cadets, 7 to 0. Wayne Henderson scored five goals.

Hogan In Comeback For Crosby Tournament Win

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Ben Hogan won the Bing Crosby invitational tournament Sunday, taking top money among the professionals with a 54-hole total of 208.

The United States Open and P.G.A. champion shook off a slump that saw him finish well back in the recent Los Angeles tournament. He finished with a two-under-par 70 yesterday, touring the tough wind-swept Pebble Beach course in 35-35—70. Par is 36-36—72.

Hogan put together three rounds of 70-68-70 over as many different par-72 courses to beat the field. The tournament annually is played over the Cypress Point, Monterey Peninsula and Pebble Beach layouts here.

While Hogan was wrapping up the individual pro honors, baseball manager Francis (Lefty) O'Doul of San Francisco Seals and his partner, Bill Nary of Phoenix, Ariz., grabbed the pro-amateur best-ball title with a 54-hole score of 196.

Stan Leonard, Vancouver pro, carded a 79 yesterday to go with his first-round 75 and second-round 74 for a 54-hole total of 288.

10-Year Span In Major Baseball Now Rarity

NEW YORK (AP)—The evidence is all too plain that the big-league baseball player slowly is vanishing from the face of the earth.

Another century or so of night ball and bone chips and floating vertebrae and this noble athletic specimen, who once darkened the sky in his annual spring migrations, will be extinct like the passenger pigeon.

This melancholy reflection is prompted by the discovery of Charley Segar, head of the National League's Service Bureau, that only 21 out of more than 300 players in the senior circuit have been in the big time as long as 10 years.

The figure is astonishing when one considers that a generation ago a 10-year man was just beginning to get his second wind and still was considered a fresh busher by his more seasoned contemporaries.

10 YEARS WAS AVERAGE

It used to be that a 10-year career in the majors was considered about average. Now it becomes all to obvious that a youngster entering the profession does so with the knowledge that he will be in the so-called big money for only six or seven years—if he is lucky.

"All I'm doing is putting out the figures—I'm not explaining 'em," Segar demurred when pressed for a reason for the mounting mortality rate.

"I know a lot of the fellows blame night ball, but there's no way they can prove it."

Tips On Golf Rules

By ROBERT FOULIS

Tip No. 86

TAKING CLUB IN BUNKER, CLUB FALLING IN BUNKER

Some years ago when the English and Scottish boys were playing their annual tournament, one of the Scottish boys took two clubs into a bunker, undecided which one to use. After sizing things up he dropped one of the clubs behind him in the sand and played his shot. His opponent claimed the hole and this was upheld by the referee! It made no difference to the result of the tournament as the Scottish boys won. But there was a scathing article in "Golfing" about referees not knowing the rules.

Here is another case which, if I remember right, happened near New York. A player in an open championship accidentally dropped his club in a bunker about six feet from his ball while waiting for his fellow competitor to play. Leaving his club there he took another club from his caddie and played out. The marker called a penalty of one stroke which the committee upheld, but on the player protesting, agreed to abide by the final ruling of the U.S.G.A. This was that the player incurred no penalty. It made a big difference to the prize money.

Switch Of Newark Franchise May Give Montreal Two Clubs

NEW YORK (AP)—Shift of the Newark franchise of the International Baseball League to either Montreal or the Bushwicks Park in Queens, Long Island, is under consideration, Frank Shaughnessy, league president, said Friday.

E. J. (Buzz) Pavasi, Montreal general manager, has invited the Newark club to play its home games in the Royals' stadium. This would involve shifting the franchise to Montreal which would become a two-club city, the first in the International League.

Parke Carroll, Newark general manager, said in Newark that the Montreal offer was "under consideration."

"There has been some discussion of the Montreal offer," Carroll said, "it is being considered. It is obvious that our set-up hasn't been too pleasant and Montreal drew more than 475,000 fans last season."

"After all Newark drew 111,000 in 11 games at Montreal last year," Shaughnessy added. "They drew 157,000 all season at Newark."

Triple 'A' Clubs Invited To Hold Playoff In Japan

NEW YORK (AP)—The winners of the little world series and the Pacific Coast League playoff champion will play a seven-game exhibition series in Japan this fall, if Frank Shaughnessy's plan is approved.

Shaughnessy, president of the International League, is keenly interested in bringing baseball to Japan to entertain United States troops over there and help recreate goodwill of the Japanese toward the American people.

Shaughnessy has sent his proposal to Bruce Dudley, newly-appointed president of the American Association and to Clarence Rowland, head of the Pacific Coast League.

It is Shag's hope that for the first time the three triple A circuits will compete for the minor league championship. As it stands now, the winners of the International League and American Association engage in a little world series, with the P.C.L. left out in the cold.

In Los Angeles, Rowland commented:

"This is the first I've heard of Shaughnessy's proposal for a minor league playoff."

"Because of geographical differences it has been impossible in the past to work out a playoff, but if some feasible solution to this problem has been evolved and the majority of our people in the Coast League agree, the idea might be carried to a conclusion."

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Universities of Notre Dame and North Carolina will play a football game in Yankee Stadium next fall for the benefit, they say, of the Irish alumni in New York and New England . . . Another football oddity is that Coach Bud Wilkinson, who made it possible for Oklahoma to pick up a $103,000 Sugar Bowl tab, had to take on two extra jobs to get a salary that would justify his staying there. We doubt that even as fine a coach as Bud can really handle three jobs.

After Clemson's footballers had won 10 straight games last fall and started receiving bowl "feeders," tub-thumper Ed Osborne telephoned his predecessor, Joe Sherman . . . "Joe," he said, "I've got an undefeated team on my hands. What do I do now?" . . . Sherman, who spent more than 20 years at Clemson before moving to Florida, replied sadly: "I don't know, Ed. I never had one."

UNDERSTATEMENT

After Vince Foster's slightly sensational knockout of Tony Pellone last week, manager Jack Hurley offered this analysis: "He was still quite crude. He was too flat-footed with too wide a stance; he didn't get the proper leverage; he was wild; he was a lousy finisher."

TONGUE TWISTER

During a recent William and Mary - V.M.I. basketball game, Zane of W. and M. fouled V.M.I.'s Fain. Zane then was replaced by Payne, who, on the next play, fouled Fain . . . Try that on your public address system.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Welterweight Chuck Taylor now has a sporting goods store in Altoona, Pa., and a hotel in nearby Gallitzin, both purchased from his ring earnings. And the kid still is only 25 years old . . . Jack Kramer and Bobby Riggs are cooking up a pro tennis tour in Europe for next spring.

Ocean Falls Squad Junior Swim Champs

The Ocean Falls junior swimming team won the annual Pacific Northwest A.A.U. championship at Seattle, edging Portland Multnomah Club 35 points to 31.

Dick Elliott of Seattle smashed freestyle records over the 100 and 200-yard distances. Elliott's times were .54.3 for the 100-yard event and 2.07.7 for the 200 yards.

Jim Portelance of Ocean Falls broke a University of Washington pool record for juniors with a time of 1.50.5 for the indivdual medley.

Brentwood Seeks Water Board; Ratepayers Sign Petition

BRENTWOOD—With only two dissenting votes, ratepayers attending a meeting in Women's Institute Hall here Friday decided to form a Brentwood District Water Board, and an estimated 90 per cent of those present put their signatures to a petition for the purpose.

It is believed that about 25 per cent of the required signatures were obtained Friday evening.

When completed the petition will be presented to the provincial government to enable the district to get incorporation papers under the Water Act, V. G. Dawson, chairman of the Saanich Chamber of Commerce water committe, said today.

In a brief talk, Mr. Dawson stressed the value of such a water board to the district. He told of the aims, powers and advantages of a board and outlined steps already taken to gather information.

The meeting decided on the area to be covered by the scheme following the vote, and then elected the following organizing committee: Claude Butler, president of the Saanich Chamber of Commerce and chairman of Friday's meeting; Mr. Dawson, Capt. D. H. McKay, Adrian Butler, H. R. Brown, Lorne Thomson and Ray Woolridge with H. D. Patterson, committee secretary.

His efforts to obtain from the Department of Transport permission to tap the Elk Lake-Patricia Bay pipeline as a source of water to supply the area were outlined by Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., M.P.

F. Godsalve Heads Centennial Choir

Frederick Godsalve was elected president of the Centennial Church Choir at the annual meeting held in the church schoolroom.

Others named to the executive were: D. Pye, vice-president; Mrs. G. E. Lane, secretary; Mrs. J. Beveridge, treasurer, and Miss F. MacIvor and Miss H. Smith, librarians.

Mrs. F. Potts, Miss M. Dent and H. Roberts were named to serve on the social committee and Mrs. F. Hall and Mrs. A. Sheard were chosen for the visiting committee.

Mrs. F. Leech and H. Williams were elected gown stewards and Miss B. Lane was named publicity officer.

Appreciative Work Of Victoria Artist Shows B.C. Scenery

By AUDREY ST.D. JOHNSON

Charting the B.C. mountains with water colors, even though the very brushes freeze, is the absorbing hobby of Maj. H. Tasker Taylor, whose latest excursion is amply recorded in an exhibition of sketches at Prince Robert House.

Formally opened Sunday afternoon, by Bishop Harold Sexton, the show is under the auspices of the Solarium Junior League in aid of the Queen Alexandra Solarium. It will continue all this week.

Maj. Taylor is an indefatigable worker, who paints what he observes and observes with an appreciative and accurate eye, taking in all detail without failing to capture the charm of the whole. Mountains of the North Thomson, Mount Robson and Harrison Lake areas provide the artist with the opportunity of expressing the delicacy of mist and blur of rain backed by the strength of a continent's rocky spine; the frigid pattern of an icefield, warm sunlit pastures or the moods of mountain water—from turbulence to deep serenity, are neatly captured.

Maj. Taylor's intense interest in his work is declared repeatedly throughout the exhibition. Completing one study, he will change position and make another sketch, observing the character of his subject from a different angle. In this way he provides a closer and more perceptive acquaintance with British Columbia's highlands than most of us would gain in a month's sojourn.

A visit to this exhibition is rewarding, for if the technique is straight-forward and conventional, the approach is vigorous, the form and modeling strong, and the color, clean and well-controlled.

Mission Cow Takes Guernsey Honors

Glengarry Nancy IV, a cow bred by R. H. Irwin and Son of Mission, B.C., has been named Gurnsey leader in Canada for the year 1948.

Milked three times a day, the champion produced 16,576 pounds of milk and 744 pounds of fat during the 12-month period.

Another cow from Irwin's farm, Maple Spring's Ella, placed as a Guernsey class leader among three-year-olds. It produced 9,254 pounds of milk and 498 pounds of fat during the year.

Maple Spring's Christmas, another Irwin Guernsey, placed first among four-year-olds in last year's 305-day division. It produced 10,769 pounds of milk and 545 pounds of fat during the period specified.

Two other cows bred on the Mission farm, Glengarry Anne and Glengarry Nancy, took top honors in the mature class for western Canada.

Bo Peep Pearl, from the farm of Gordon N. Russell, Sardis, B.C., took first place among western Canada four-year-olds and Glengarry Martha, owned by J. A. Oliver, New Westminster, was best of three-year-olds competing in the 305-day division.

6 Motorists Have Licenses Held For High-Speed Races

Fines totaling $280 and license suspensions ranging from three to six months, were levied against six motorists by Magistrate H. C. Hall when they appeared in Saanich and city police courts today on charges of dangerous driving.

All pleaded guilty to the charges which were laid by police constables who described defendant's actions as "racing" on the public highways Saturday night and early Sunday morning.

The four who were fined $50 each and had their licenses suspended for six months each in Saanich police court were Norman and Donald A. Mycock and Edward Campbell, all residents on East Saanich Road, and Roderick Harford of Langford.

Constable Robert Adrian told the court of a wild chase after a quartette of cars, starting from East Saanich Road and Glanford Avenue, which did not end until Douglas Street and Boleskin Road were reached around 12.20 Sunday morning. That is where the police car, also carrying Constable Robert Coleman, stopped three of the speeders. The fourth was picked up later.

Constable Coleman said the drivers started off from a dance at Royal Oak two abreast and appeared to be jockeying for position in a race to town. He said the cars traveled at speeds up to 85 miles an hour over the road, which was icy and slippery in spots. None of the four, all in their early twenties, had anything to say about their actions.

In city police court, Westley T. David Guille and Robert James Patterson, both resident at 1774 Denman Street, pleaded guilty to dangerous driving charges on Douglas Street Saturday night. Magistrate Hall fined them $40 each and suspended their driver's licenses for three months.

Constable Aldon Appleton said he saw this pair going at a high rate of speed on Douglas at Bay Street. The officer said the accused appeared to be racing, that he overtook them at Boleskine Road. Speeds of the defendants, he said, reached between 60 and 65 miles an hour. Both of the accused, however, claimed they were not going that fast. Guille said he had never gone over 50 miles an hour in his life.

City Council Urged To Continue Support Second Radio Station

The City Council today was urged to continue its support of an application before the CBC Board of Governors for establishment of a second radio station in Victoria.

The Victoria West Community Centre said in a resolution: "It is essential that another radio station be established to properly serve the community and business interests of Greater Victoria."

William Pollard, 60 San Jose Avenue, said in a letter that David Armstrong, who has applied for permission to start a second station, deserves City Council support in his venture.

He said there must be room for a second station in view of the number of advertisements heard on the existing station.

"Often throughout the day there are two advertisements between each record, so CJVI can hardly say they are suffering from lack of advertisers," Mr. Pollard wrote. "And sometimes all these commercials get annoying when repeated so often."

Meanwhile, Mr. Armstrong wired the council from Montreal where the hearing on his application will take place Saturday, asking for continued support.

"Victoria is too big and important to be served by just one station," he said in the telegram. "One station in a capital city of over 100,000 people cannot possibly do all the necessary public service broadcasts."

He pledged himself to support all worthy organizations and groups and stated: "I will strive to build a real community spirit."

The council last week passed a resolution supporting Mr. Armstrong's application, but it has not been forwarded to Montreal, pending hearing of arguments against a second station by representatives from CJVI.

3 Residences, 1 Downtown Store Targets Of Week-End Burglars

Burglars were active in the city during the week-end, city police reported today. Three homes and one downtown store were broken into.

Harvey Jones, proprietor of the Two-Jacks on Government Street, reported to the station Sunday that $110.65 in cash was taken from the cash register and $50 worth of nickels in rolls were stolen from a padlocked wooden box. The padlock was knocked off.

Mr. Jones said he believed this occurred while the 73-year-old janitor, Robert McLean, who is deaf, was cleaning out the back of the premises Sunday morning. The front door would be unlocked at the time, he told Det.-Sgt. Henry Jarvis, as there was no sign of forced entry.

Thieves who broke into the home of C. B. Conway, 937 Bank Street, forced open drawers and escaped with a large number of articles, including a coin collection.

Mr. Conway said these included $4 in bills, two $5 gold pieces, two or three Newfoundland 50-cent pieces, a $15 dinner ring, various pieces of cheap costume jewelry, a large number of foreign coins, including Belgian and French five-franc pieces.

Entry was gained through an unlocked bedroom window.

Mrs. Conway told Det.-Sgt. Jarvis that she was awakened by a noise around 3 in the morning and got up to investigate. After seeing nothing, she returned to bed.

A kitchen window was forced at the home of F. A. Gowan, 1621 Jubilee Avenue, to gain entry. Only things found missing were $1 in silver and a tin containing papers.

Maurice W. Randall, Dominion Hotel, told police his car which was parked on the upper part of Yates Street Saturday evening between 8 and 10 was entered, the registration slip torn off the steering arm, the electric fan damaged and the vehicle moved for a half a block.

A battery was stolen from one of the Economy Steam Laundry trucks parked on the company's parking lot during the week-end.

Snowdrops Bloom As Spring Nears

Roses may be blooming in Picardy but in Victoria, snowdrops are the thing.

They're small, mind you, and delicate. But there's no getting away from it—they are snowdrops and they are out.

Recent overnight frosts that have hit Victoria have not helped the flowers to bloom but the warm sunshine during the daytime has helped overcome this.

Daffodils in the park are already two to three inches above the surface of the ground. Which brings to mind the question: "Can spring be far away?"

Sunday night's rain tended to keep the temperature from dropping too low overnight. The Dominion meteorlogical observatory measured the rainfall as .04 of an inch. The minimum temperature Sunday was recorded as 35 degrees. The maximum was 40.

The rainfall so far this month is only .26 of an inch, which is far better than usual.

William Burton, superintendent at the observatory, says .11 inch of rain fell Jan. 5, .10 inch fell Jan. 6 and .01 inch fell Jan. 13. A trace of snow was recorded Jan. 7.

The forecast is for continuing clear weather with light winds. The low temperature for tonight is 30 and the high Tuesday, 40.

Anthony Eden, Pressed For Time, Cannot Speak Here

Mr. Massey explained that Mr. Eden is making a very quick tour by air of Canada, Australia and New Zealand and is spending only a few days in this country. Mr. Eden agreed to make four addresses, including one on Jan. 27 at the annual meeting of the Vancouver Board of Trade.

Since it was announced that Mr. Eden intended to visit this country he has been besieged by invitations to speak. Mr. Massey has been reluctantly forced to refuse all of them.

Named honorary vice-presidents were: Rear Admiral H. G. DeWolf, Brig. M. P. Bogert and Group Capt. Z. I. Leigh.

Expects India To Show Way In Asia If West Co-Operates

The new Dominion of India is expected to be to Asia what England is to Europe, and Canada and the United States are to North and South America, according to Edward C. Carter, chairman of the International Finance Committee of the Institute of Pacific Relations, New York, who is in the city to address the Victoria branch of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs.

If the western democracies and India co-operate while uncertain conditions prevail in China, the latter will be abe to show the way in the Far East, Mr. Carter said.

As his reason for this, the much-traveled expert on international social and economic affairs stated that India is making great strides forward since she acquired Dominion status.

Industries are expanding, multi-purpose hydro-electric and irrigation projects are under way, and there are four sizable airlines now operating. The iron and steel works at Jamshedpur, largest in the Commonwealth, is being greatly expanded, he added.

PSYCHOSIS GONE

"During my four-month visit to India last summer I noticed a striking contrast in speaking to the people," he said. Under direct British rule, at least half the people you spoke to would tell you how terrible British rule and the British themselves were. But now that old psychosis of master and servant is gone, and the Indian population meet Englishmen as they would anyone else.

"Now they will ask you 'do you realize what great things Britain did for India?' They can now look objectively at what Britain did, and point out the good things done."

Mr. Carter pointed out that since the 562 princely states that formerly had treaties with the King-Emperor are now democratic, more had been done in a year than England had done in many years. He said this was an opinion passed on to him by an Englishman.

Mr. Carter is on a speaking tour of western Canada, addressing branches of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs, Canadian affiliate of the Institute of Pacific Relations, a privately-supported organization dealing with social and economic relations between nations bordering the Pacific Ocean.

ELEVENTH VISIT

This evening, he will address the local branch on the topic "Personal Experiences in Pakistan, India and Burma." Mr. Carter's visit to these countries last summer was his eleventh to the area.

This afternoon, he spoke to the Women's Canadian Club on "India a New Power."

Mr. Carter has two sons, one of whom is in charge of the Office of Exchange of Persons in Paris, a Unesco branch which administers 200 international fellowships for exchange of scientists around the world. His other son is a teacher at a large New York school.

His daughter is on the research staff of the Institute of Pacific Relations at New York.

REMEMBER, ALWAYS COUNT THOSE TRICKS

The lessons in bridge are many and varied, but the most important one of all is to learn to count your tricks. It is around this principle that many other lessons in bridge are built.

In today's hand, for example, there is the question of re-entries, but unless you count your tricks, you are apt to slip up on the hand.

Declarer played dummy's 10 of hearts on the opening lead, West won with the king, and gave up the idea of returning the heart suit. He led back the 10 diamonds, trying to knock out the diamond ace. North put on the jack, East the king and dummy's ace won the trick. Now if declarer could successfully finesse the spades, he could count five spade tricks, a heart, a diamond and two clubs.

But suppose that the spade finesse did not work, how then would he get back into his hand to take the heart finesse? He was almost sure that East had the queen of hearts, as East undoubtedly had led his fourth best and West had won the trick with the king of hearts.

North: ♠ J 8 ♥ 9 4 2 ♦ J 8 5 3 ♣ A 9 6 2
West: ♠ K 7 2 ♥ K 6 ♦ Q 10 9 6 ♣ J 8 4 3
East: ♠ 9 5 4 ♥ Q 7 5 3 ♦ K 4 2 ♣ 10 7 5
South (Dealer): ♠ A Q 10 6 3 ♥ A J 10 8 ♦ A 7 ♣ K Q

Lesson Hand—Neither vul.

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	1 N.T.	Pass
3 N.T.	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening—♥ 3

The best line of attack was to hope that the king of spades was wrong. Declarer's first play after winning the ace of diamonds was to cash the king and queen of clubs and then lead the three of spades from dummy. If west went in with the king, the jack of spades would become an entry. If West did not go up with the king, declarer would win the trick with the jack and return the nine of hearts.

East would refuse to cover, so declarer would play the eight of hearts that he had carefully saved in dummy. Then he would take another heart finesse.

The seven of diamonds would put West in and now he must either lead a club to the ace or a spade into the ace-queen. Thus, counting your tricks and watching your entries gives you nine tricks.

Authors' President To Visit Victoria

At the monthly meeting of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Authors' Association, Mrs. H. W. Maunsell announced that Will Bird, noted Canadian novelist and president of the national association would visit Victoria next month and address the branch. Mr. Bird was twice winner of the Ryerson fiction award with "Here Stays Good Yorkshire" and "Judgment Glen."

Reference was also made to the death of Mrs. Reese Burns, for many years a member of the association, writer and teacher of speech at the Normal School.

There was a forum discussion on "Writing the Novel." It was led by Mrs. Clarke who dealt with "Character and Plot," H. W. Maunsell on "Canadian Background," Mrs. Lusse "Lighter Side of Fiction," and J. T. Williamson "The Historical Novel."

Tapestry For Stalin

BRATISLAVA, Czechoslovakia (AP)—Prime Minister Stalin is to get a huge tapestry, more than 36 feet square, for his 70th birthday next Dec. 31. Five thousand Slovak women have started work on the gift, hand embroidering it with Slovak folk symbols.

What your life insurance company is doing to safeguard your health

Your life insurance company wants to do everything possible to help keep you in the best of health for the rest of your life. So, in cooperation with all other life insurance companies, it contributes funds to public health and medical research projects.

Some of these projects seek new methods of preventing heart ailments and such deadly diseases as cancer, tuberculosis and polio. Others search for scientific information to promote better nutrition, prenatal care and dental hygiene.

And because the life insurance companies help support these projects, more "men and women in white" work at these vital tasks. Laboratories expand and buy new equipment. Science makes greater headway in pushing back the frontiers of disease.

In addition some individual companies sponsor special health projects for the benefit of their policyholders.

All these efforts help to reduce the ultimate cost of life insurance. And they play an important behind-the-scenes part in helping you and your family to enjoy longer, healthier lives!

Telephone Rally Steadies Market

NEW YORK (AP)—American Telephone and Telegraph rallied in the stock market Monday after an early break of 4½ points.

Late in the day Telephone was down around one point, the third daily loss in a row.

Pressure against A.T. and T. started Friday following news that the department of justice had filed an anti-monopoly suit against the company.

The recovery helped steady the balance of the market, which had tended downward in morning trade.

London Market

LONDON (Reuter)—Prices in most sections of the London Stock Exchange showed a tendency to lower levels today.

Trading was restricted and under the influence of the approach of the end of the accountancy period, concerning the Palestine situation, South African riots and tomorrow's opening of Parliament.

Fractional declines were registered by the gilted long-dated stocks.

The terms of the Anglo-Polish trade agreement resulted in marking up of Polish bonds in the foreign section. Other foreign bonds were quietly steady.

Cape selling of South African minings produced lower levels at the outset. Cheap buyers at the lower levels caused a slight rally and the section closed quiet and occasionally easier on the day.

Grain

WINNIPEG (CP) — Oats and barley futures prices drifted lower today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as commission house offerings came into the market in response to weaknesses on the American markets.

Oats also come in for some American selling, while heavy farm marketings contributed to expansion in elevator hedging sales in both grains. Support was limited to small purchases by shippers.

Rye prices fell off after scoring modest gains on early American demand. The declines came as commission house selling appeared, reflecting losses at Chicago.

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains and soybeans worked lower on the Board of Trade Monday.

Action of the fats and oils market had an unsettling influence on cereals, although corn showed some firmness at times. Grain dealers said the government appeared to be buying fairly large quantities of cash corn. Wheat and oats were off major fractions most of the day.

With aircraft circling overhead, geysers from New York fireboats and toots and whistles from harbor craft, the 34,000-ton Cunard liner Caronia, largest passenger vessel built since the war, is shown as it ended its maiden voyage recently approaching the North River pier at Manhattan. The Caronia made her first trip from England in six days, 14 hours and 33 minutes. The $20,000,000 liner will later be used for tropical cruises.

Young Engineer To Instruct Veteran Locomotive Men On New E. & N. Diesels

By JIM McKEACHIE

A 28-year-old engineer pushed a button Sunday. There was a roar and a whine and with practically no vibration and with absolutely no jolt, the first of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway's new diesel-electric locomotives glided out of the Victoria West roundhouse, traveled a few hundred yards down the track and came to a stop as smoothly as it had started.

The young engineer was Bill Vanbebber of San Francisco, field man for Baldwin Locomotive Works, manufacturers of the 13 diesel-electric engines which will be operating on the Vancouver Island railway by the end of February.

Vanbebber will check out the line's steam engineers on the huge new engines during his stay of about two months in the city.

Sunday's abbreviated jaunt was a demonstration for several railroaders who went to the roundhouse to "just look over" the big yellow and black 1,000 horsepower engine.

WARM SPOTLESS CAB

It was a somewhat unusual sight to see the clean-cut young former U.S. navy submarine technician telling the steam men, some of whom have handled steam-driven engines for four decades, about the dials, handles and switches in the warm, spotless cab of the diesel.

The veteran railroaders must have recalled the days when as firemen they shoveled more coal than they care to talk about now as they watched Vanbebber push a button slightly larger than a doorbell button to start the diesel engines.

The "office" of the engineer in the cab is remarkably free of gadgets and levers. To shut down the engine, Vanbebber just pulled out a small knob.

There are upholstered leather seats for the engineer and "fireman" whose title is actually incorrect on a diesel engine. A heater controlled by a rheostat ensures plenty of warmth for both.

Steam has not entirely disappeared. There is an automatic steam passenger train heating unit.

The bell cannot be seen as on steam locomotives.

And when one of the E. & N. engineers tried the whistle, as one would expect of all good engineers, it was a completely different sound than is now heard at level crossings.

LIKE CHINOOK

The best way to describe the air whistle of the diesel engine to Victorians is to say that it sounds almost identical to that of the Black Ball Ferry Line's Mv. Chinook.

The 13 engines which will operate on the island are of the road switcher type. They are designed for use both in yards and on the line. They have a top speed of 60 miles per hour as compared to the 120-mile-per-hour maximum of the regular 3,000 horse power road locomotives.

Five of the diesels, all of which were built at Eddystone, Pennsylvania, near Philadelphia, are expected to be used on the E. & N. passenger service within a month.

Diesels handle the same class of load as steam locomotives now operating on the road, but, according to Vanbebber, can outpull the latter. In addition they are cheaper to operate.

Those jerky starts are a thing of the past when you ride in a train pulled by a diesel. Thanks to a "soft-start position" on the throttle, a smooth getaway is assured.

Vanbebber, a graduate of the University of California, who also attended the University of Oklahoma, says it will only take two or three days to check out each engineer on the new engines.

THEN THEY LOVE THEM

"The old-time steam men often get annoyed with them for a short time to begin with, but that is just because things are not where they are used to reaching for them. Once they are familiar with the diesels, they love them," said Vanbebber.

The E. & N. will be the first to operate diesel engines on the line in the Pacific region of the C.P.R. At present there are six on the mainland but they are used exclusively in the terminal yards at Vancouver.

Dredging Of Harbor Starts

The month-long task of deepening Victoria's inner harbor got under way today as the B.C. Bridge and Dredging Company's big suction dredge commenced work near the Johnson Street Bridge.

The dredge will remove the mud and rock blasted from the harbor floor early last year. The material will be conveyed through a large pipe to Island Tug and Barge Company property on the west side of the harbor inside Johnson Street Bridge.

The pipe floats on pontoons from the barge, under the bridge, then goes over Department of Transport property to the tug company's unimproved land.

Workmen were joining the sections of the pipe on Sunday and this morning. It was brought over from the mainland by barge last week with the dredge which has been used on Fraser River dyking projects.

Deepening of the inner harbor will remove troublesome hazards for larger vessels. C.P.R. steamers have had some difficulty navigating in the confined area of the harbor.

The dredging will ensure an adequate depth of water for the company's two new "Princess" ships, the first of which is scheduled to arrive here late March or early April.

Necessary To Amend Act If Stores To Remain Open

An amendment to the provincial Weekly Half-Holiday Act will be necessary if proposals made to the tourist trade group to have city stores remain open a full six days a week are put into effect.

The act, as it now stands, states every shop not otherwise provided for in the act must be closed not later than 1 o'clock one week-day afternoon each week.

The matter of half-day closing was brought up at a meeting of the tourist trade group of the Chamber of Commerce last week.

Some members expressed the opinion the afternoon closing regulation was a definite hardship to tourists, especially those who come here for a one-day visit on a Wednesday.

After discussing the matter at length, the tourist group decided to forward the matter to the retail merchants' section for its opinion. So far a meeting of this group has not yet been called.

Contracts Delayed For Subchasers

OTTAWA (CP) — Construction contracts for the navy's new sub-killing ships likely will not be let out until the fall.

The vessels, an improvement on Canada's frigate of the Second World War, are still in the blueprint stage and are far from completed even on paper, according to well-informed quarters.

A point that will tend to hold up the start of construction—but which will speed up the building in the long run—is that the navy hopes that the designs as drawn originally will represent just about the way the ships will emerge from the shipyards.

Victorian Commands Large Oil Tanker

A former Victoria sea cadet now commands a 10,000-ton Standard Oil Company tanker which runs between the west coast of the United States and the Far East.

Alan McGregor, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McGregor, 1046 Topaz Avenue, was educated at Quadra and Victoria High schools and joined the local sea cadet corps at the age of 14.

He served in a number of coastal vessels in this area, including the Salvage King, the cableship Restorer, the hydrographic survey ship William J. Stewart and the former C.N.R. passenger vessel Ss. Prince Robert.

Capt. McGregor acquired his first mate's coasting certificate in 1938 and was soon after appointed to the Ss. Bahrien, the tanker which he now commands. He joined the ship as third officer at San Francisco.

He obtained his deepsea master's papers in Vancouver in 1946 and became captain of the Bahrien last Dec. 23.

Haida Veterans Recall Old Times

It was like old times last week for 19 men who served on the H.M.C.S. Haida during the Second World War.

The men, many of whom are now civilians, got together in the chief petty officers' mess in H.M.C.S. Naden and "spun many a dip" as they recalled wartime experiences.

Members of the original crew of the destroyer which saw action in French coastal waters are spread all across Canada now, but all who could attended the reunion

Principal guest was Rear Admiral H. G. DeWolf, flag officer Pacific coast, who was commanding officer of Haida during the war.

Others present were: Lt.-Cmdr. J. C. L. Annesley, Lieut. L. I. Jones, J. E. Insley, warrant electrical officer Bert Barker, CPO. Andrews, Mr. Richards, CPO. Meia, CPO. D. Abbott, Mr. Rinsford, Mr. Pederson, CPO. Caddell, CPO. Owens, Mr. Moon, CPO. Muzyka, Mr. St. Pierre, Mr. G. Findlay, Ldg. Tel. Mannix, Mr. Steele.

GUNNERY EXERCISES

H.M.C.S. Athabaskan left Esquimalt Harbor this morning to carry out routine gunnery exercises in the Strait of Juan de Fuca, according to a navy spokesman.

Boat Trains Meet Aquitania Today

Four special trains will be operated by the Canadian National Railways this week for the accommodation of 1,462 passengers due to reach Halifax today on Ss. Aquitania.

Austin I. Curtis, C.N.R. general agent, passenger department here, reports that one of the specials will carry almost 400 passengers to Winnipeg. A large percentage of this number, destined to B.C. points, will proceed to the Pacific coast on regular C.N.R. trains.

The four specials, Mr. Curtis said, are part of a schedule of 11 boat trains which the C.N.R. will operate from Halifax this month. The other seven trains will accommodate passengers arriving at that port on Ss. Gripsholm, Ss. Sobieski, and two displaced person ships, the Marine Jumper and Scythia.

JESSMORE DUE TUESDAY

The Furness Line's Jessmore will dock here Tuesday evening from the United Kingdom with a cargo of cars, liquor, earthenware and glassware.

The British freighter Industria will load 350,000 feet of lumber for the U.K. at Cowichan Bay Tuesday, then call at this port for an additional 800,000 board feet Wednesday. She will likely sail some time Thursday.

U.S. Flour Shipments To China Cut Off
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Economic Co-operation Administration has cut off flour and wheat shipments to China.

Announcing this, the relief agency said it had become "physically impossible' 'to unload supplies at Taku Bar, the major port serving Tientsin and Peiping. Ports to the south were described as clogged or oversupplied.

The cut-off was decided upon before the actual fall of Tientsin to the Communists.

The E.C.A. action probably means the collapse of food rationing in Communist-threatened Peiping unless an overland supply system can be organized soon, said Harlan Cleveland, director of the E.C.A. China program.

Discuss Adequacy Of Fire Department In Esquimalt Area
The question as to whether or not present fire protection in Esquimalt is adequate, has been brought forward by the industrial development committee of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and certain suggestions have been forwarded by this group to the Esquimalt Council.

At a recent meeting of the committee an opinion was expressed that present fire department facilities in the municipality are not adequate and that industries there are not enjoying the security they are entitled to in this regard.

It was pointed out that inadequate fire protection could critically effect industrial development of the area concerned.

Manitoba's Motorists Free Of Safety Levy
WINNIPEG (CP) — For the second successive year, Manitoba's motorists will be free of a levy for the unsatisfied judgment fund, Attorney-General J. O. McLenaghen announced during the week-end.

The levy, first collected from motorists in 1946, was imposed under Manitoba's safety responsibility law to protect victims of financially irresponsible drivers.

Motorists were charged $1 each in 1946. The levy was cut to 50 cents in 1947.

The left-front headlight and fender of the car driven by Charles G. The bus driver was John Maysmith, 2947 Shelbourne Street. Police said the bus was going west on Carnsew and turning left onto Moss, the Harris car traveling north on Moss.

A development of Canadian-Australian trade during the next few years while Australia attempts to overcome her dollar crisis, is foreseen by Frank Wise Fraser, Canadian commercial secretary at Melbourne, who is visiting in Victoria today.

Mr. Fraser, one of the senior members of Canada's foreign trade service, is ending a Canadian tour. He will sail aboard the Aorangi this week for Australia.

In the opinion of Mr. Fraser, Australia's dollar shortage is more acute than Canada's and Australians are going without many goods because their country does not have the U.S. and Canadian funds to buy them. In Australia, Canadian dollars are considered just as "hard" as U.S. dollars.

Australia, however, is enjoying full employment and the country is developing many industries to make it more self-sufficient and at the same time increase production of goods for export. In recent years, Australia has seen a big development of her pulp and paper industries, rayon and automobile plants.

Paper is still one of the major items Australia imports from Canada and the country is still very short of newsprint. Daily newspapers in Sydney are limited to eight pages on week-days. Their week-end editions are 12 pages.

Australia since the end of the war has striven to increase exports of canned fruits and other foods to Canada in an effort to improve her balance to trade. Mr. Fraser believes that more Australian products will be on the shelves of B.C. and other Canadian stores during 1949 than in 1948.

While in Victoria Mr. Fraser is meeting officials of the provincial government and representatives of Vancouver Island manufacturing and trading companies. He has also visited the Victoria plant of Felt and Textiles of Canada Ltd. He will return to Vancouver tonight.

Sentence Postponed
QUEBEC (CP) — Mr. Justice George F. Gibsone today postponed sentencing of Jules Sioui, 44-year-old Huron convicted Saturday of conspiracy to incite a rebellion of Canadian Indians to Monday, Jan. 24.

The little grey-haired resident of the Loretteville Huron Reserve and secretary of an organization called the "Government of the North American Indian Nation," was reported ill in his Quebec jail cell. He was to have been sentenced this morning.

Sioui had visited his home Saturday in the company of a constable after the court granted him special permission to do so.
